Mrs. Wilson: I'm going to make some Yorkshire puddings.
Will you help me?

Alice: Yes, of course. I like this pudding.
What do we need for it?

Mrs. Wilson: Just some oil, flour, eggs and milk.

Alice: How much flour do we need?

Mrs. Wilson: A cup of flour. Get some eggs and milk from the fridge.

Alice: Oh! How many eggs shall I get out? There's a little milk and a few eggs in the fridge.

Mrs. Wilson: We need 3 eggs and a cup of milk for the pudding.

Alice: Here you are. Anything else? Sugar? Salt?

Mrs. Wilson: Some salt, please. There isn't any sugar in Yorkshire pudding.

Alice: How much salt shall I get?

Mrs. Wilson: Just a little. Hm. The batter is ready. Now let's cook them.
