A blue stick figure with a crown is holding a large white circle. Inside the circle, the words "am", "are", "is", and "be" are written in red and blue text. The words "am", "are", and "is" are in red, while "be" is in blue. The words are arranged in a grid-like fashion: "am" and "are" are on the top row, "is" is on the bottom row, and "be" is on the right side of the circle.

An illustration of a snowy scene. On the left, a house with a red roof and a chimney is covered in snow. Three stick figures are standing in front of the house. The first stick figure is holding a sign that says "you". The second stick figure is holding a sign that says "we". The third stick figure is holding a sign that says "they". To the right of the house, there is a large white sign that says "are" in red letters. A red stick figure is holding the "are" sign. In the bottom right corner, there is a solid orange circle.
