The Antarctic Research Project 15 Queen's Road London SW2 WPD

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to apply for the job of helper with the Antarctic Research Project, which was advertised in the London Times on 18 August.

My reasons for wishing to join the team are that I have always been fascinated by wildlife and I would very much like to expand my knowledge of wildlife by doing research of this kind.

I have enclosed my CV. As you will see, I have worked in two veterinary practices in my free time and have spent some time in the north of England helping a vet during the lambing season.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely, Adrian Roberts Adrian Roberts
