

Higher education

education at a college or university where subjects are studied at an advanced level

A photograph of a university building facade with classical columns and a sign that reads 'UNIVERSITY'. A dark blue rectangular box is overlaid on the upper half of the image, containing the text 'What is higher education?' in white.

What is higher education?

Goal

- This lesson you will learn what is it like to study at university. Who works there, what can you do there? What are the facilities?
- Today we will learn new vocabulary, describe some pictures and make up some sentences.
- Surprise!

A Standard of Judgement

Michael Smith
Princeton University

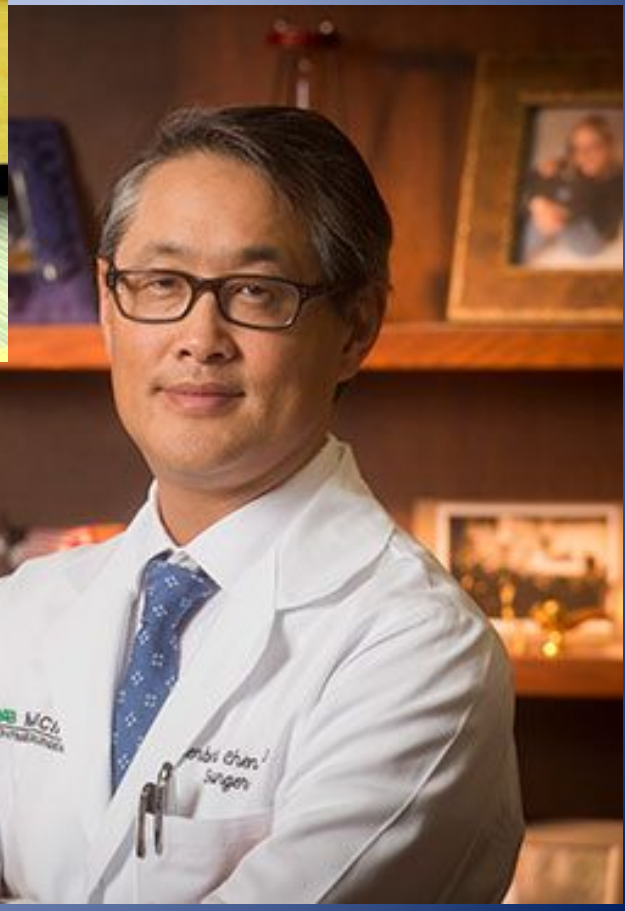

Lecture 1: From the human condition to a standard of judgement

- Lecture 2: From a standard of judgement to moral rationalism
- Lecture 3: The best form of moral rationalism
- Lecture 4: Moral reasons vs non-moral reasons
- Lecture 5: A normative theory of blame
- Lecture 6: Loose ends
- Bonus discussion section: Defeat by nature in "Force Majeure"

There is no beginning of philosophy: a recognition of the conflict between duty, as taught by free reason, & a consideration of what actually is, & the discovery of a standard of judgement. Spinoza, Tractatus II.11

Why do you need to study?

Every home is a university and the parents are the teachers.

— Mahatma Gandhi —
