Form 3, Yakutsk

Once upon a time, there was a girl named Dasha. She lived in an orphanage because she has no family.

She could not walk, run or jump. She had aching legs

Dasha was very fond of reading and looking at pictures with dancers.

She dreamed of a beautiful dress and how she dance at the ball.

One day the girl was sitting in the carriage in the garden. At this time a white car drove up to the orphanage. A beautiful young women came out to her

She went to Dasha and said:

- Hello, little girl. My name is Irina Petrovna. And you?
- Hello! My name is Dasha
- Why are you sitting alone?

“They all went to the theater and I stayed,” answered Dasha.

The woman sat down besides the bench and they began to talk.

- And what are you dreaming about, Dasha?

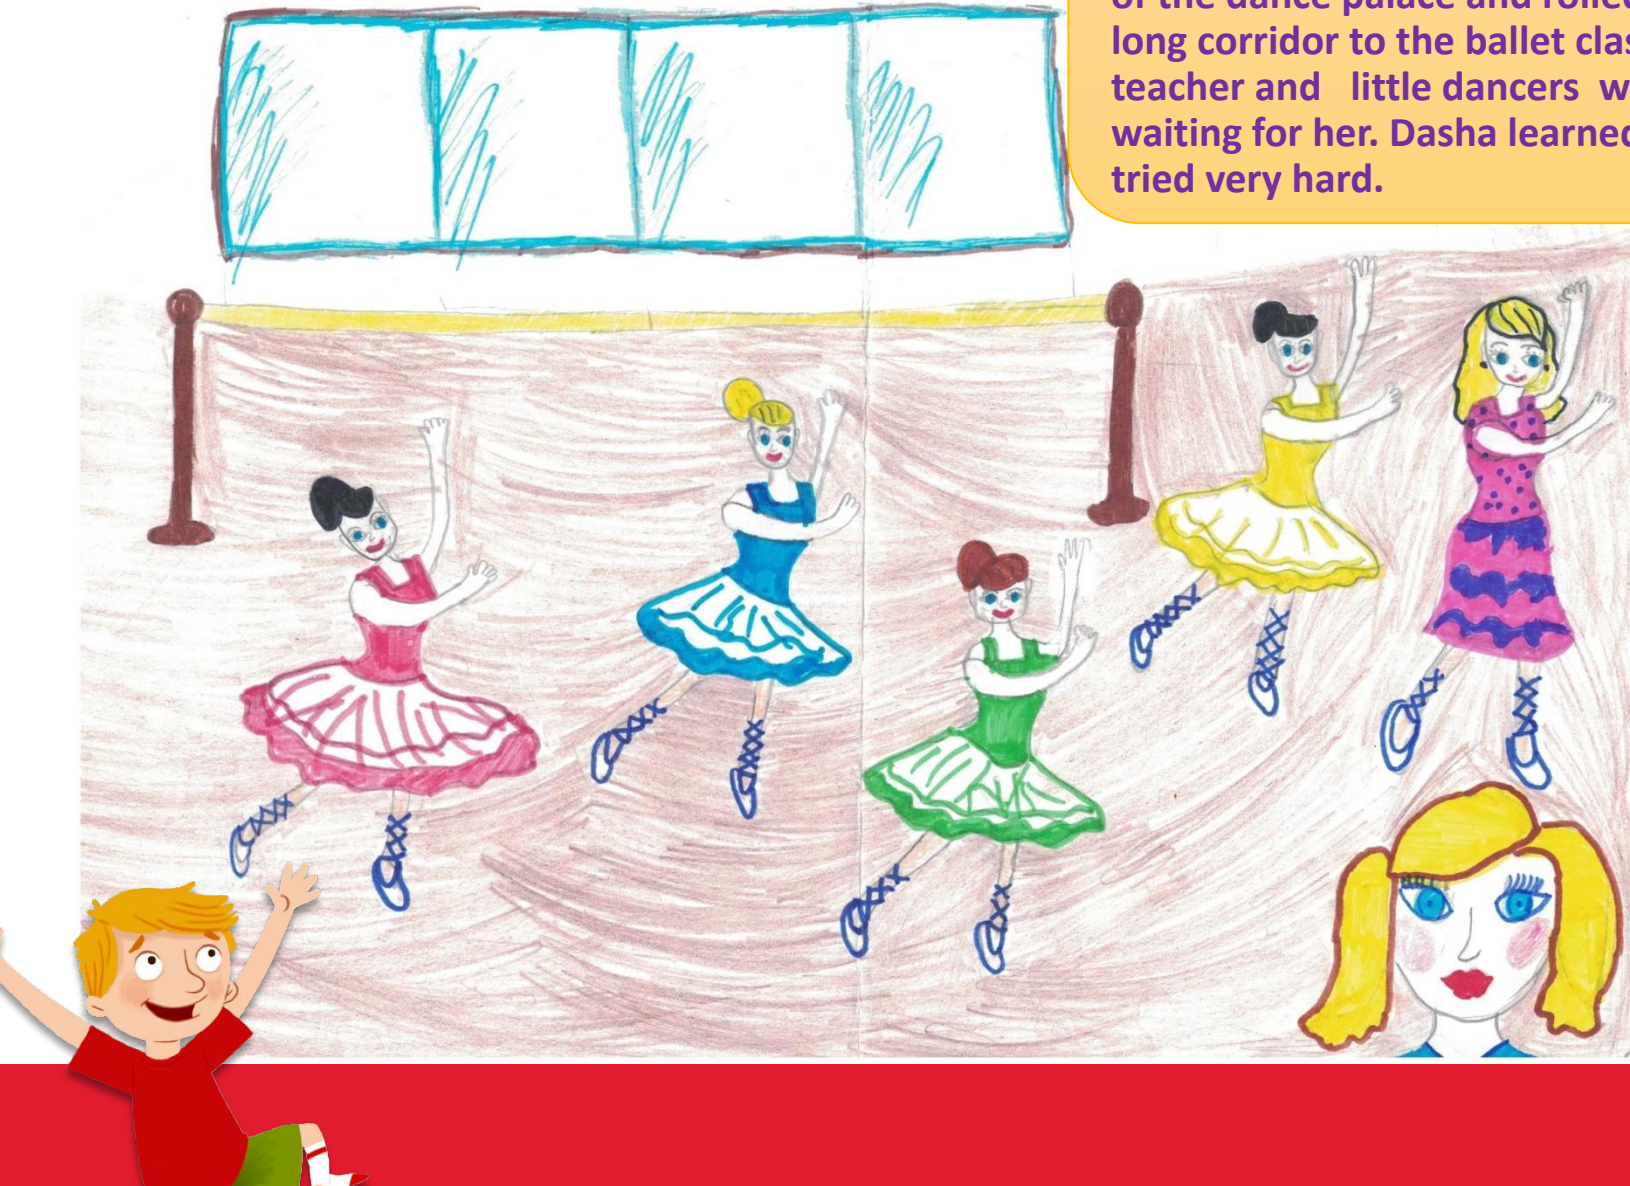

The girl told her about her big dream.

-You came to the right place.
After all, I'm the director of the dance school. I'll teach you to dance

Dasha started to dance. She became friends with the children and she had a partner- the boy Misha. Tears of joy rolled down her face when she opened the door of the dance palace and rolled along the long corridor to the ballet class. There a teacher and little dancers were always waiting for her. Dasha learned a lot, she tried very hard.

And then came that joyful day. There was a big ball. Dasha and Misha performed on the stage. Everyone applauded and gave them flowers.

And suddenly Dasha got up to take flowers.
And she took the first step forward, “hooray”.

Many years later, a beautiful young dance teacher Daria Vasilyevna works in the palace .
