

Americans and Russian: are they different?

I. Simple game

1. What can Russians be proud of?

- a) culture (33)
- b) place of interest (28)
- c) talented people (26)
- d) discoveries (9)
- e) nature (4)

II. Double game

- a) high living standards (35)
- b) computer technology (29)
- c) pop stars (18)
- d) famous actors (10)
- e) sport (8)

III. The triple game

3. What words come to a person's mind when he or she hears the words «the USA»?

- a) New York, Statue of Liberty (33)
- b) Hollywood (31)
- c) the war in Iraq (22)
- d) The 11 th of September (10)
- e) the dollar (4)

IV. The contrary game

What words come to a person's mind when he or she hears the words

«Russia»?

- a) Moscow and St. Petersburg (100)
- b) beautiful language (200)
- c) Siberia (300)
- d) Space and rockets (400)
- e) Cold winter (500)

V. Final game

1. What facts from the history of Russia are important for Russian people?

- a) the Second World War (38)
- b) communism (30)
- c) the USSR (15)
- d) cold war (11)
- e) the victory (9 th May) (6)

2. What place of interest in Moscow do foreigners usually visit?

- a) Red Square and Kremlin (35)
- b) the Tretyakov Gallery (30)
- c) the Pushkin Museum (20)
- d) The State History Museum (20)
- e) the Zoo (10)

3. What traits of character are common for Americans?

- a) they are proud of their country (40)
- b) they pay much attention to their health (28)
- c) they are friendly (17)
- d) they are sociable (8)
- e) they are lazy (2)

4. What trains of character are common for Russian people?

- a) they are hospitable (37)
- b) they are kind (22)
- c) they have open character (18)
- d) they are cheerful (14)
- e) they are brave (9)

5. What can people be different in?

- a) appearance (38)
- b) tastes (26)
- c) experience (15)
- d) beliefs and opinions (11)
- e) culture (10)

Thank you for the game!

