Next we will be watch
the cartoon about Christmas =)

A classic winter scene featuring a large, two-story stone house with a steep, snow-laden roof. The house has several arched windows, some with warm light glowing from within. A large chimney on the right side also has a bright flame at the top. The front entrance is decorated with a large, ornate wreath. In the foreground, a set of stone steps leads up to the porch, where a man and a woman are standing. To the left, a street lamp stands on a post. In the background, there are tall evergreen trees heavily laden with snow. To the right, a wooden bridge spans a stream flowing through the snow-covered landscape.

Merry Christmas!
