

Traditions in New Zealand

National holiday	Date
New Year celebration	1 - January 2
Waitangi Day	February 6
Good Friday	Last Friday before Easter Sunday
Easter Sunday	According to the church calendar
Easter Monday	The first Monday after Easter Sunday
Anzac Day	April 25
Queen's Birthday	June 7, 2010
labor Day	23th Monday in October
Christmas	Dec. 25
Boxing Day	Dec. 26

Among the important general celebrations include Mother's Day (2nd Sunday in May) and Father's Day (1st Sunday in September)

New Year in New Zealand

In New Zealand, the New Year is traditionally celebrated with a smaller scale than Christmas. But fluffy pine native species in the streets and squares - a mandatory attribute of the celebration of the New Year. In New Zealand, the New Year is accompanied by several holidays that New Zealanders prefer to spend on travel or a trip to the country as a family. So come on holiday in New Zealand is worth it for the New Year holidays.

Easter Sunday

On the eve of the local people were buying like crazy in the shops of chocolate rabbits and chocolate eggs, which are then presented to friends, acquaintances and relatives. We have found in the week upakovochku with chocolate eggs in their inbox. Our homeowners for us to try. Cakes in the stores did not see about dyed eggs, too, can not say anything, I do not know.

Boxing Day

Every year, December 26 is celebrated a holiday called "Boxing Day". On this day, many stores are arranged almost unprecedented share of all goods. Therefore, local shopaholics literally attacking department stores, bought up everything.

