A blurry, low-resolution image of a dinosaur, likely a pack hunter, in a desert environment. The dinosaur is dark-colored with a lighter patch on its chest. The background shows a hazy, mountainous landscape under a blue sky. The text is overlaid in red on the image.

It was one of the most dangerous of all dinosaurs! It had got eighty sharp teeth. It could run fast. It also could jump very high and ate meat. This dinosaur hunted in pack and could kill a dinosaur three times bigger than itself.
