

School

mate

day

days

age

year

leaver

house

Ann and I go to school together. She is my schoolmate.

How many schooldays do you have?

My mother's schooldays were a very happy time.

Is Jane a school age child?

When does the school year finish in Russia?

My sister is a school-leaver . She is thinking of going to university.

Our schoolhouse is very high. You can see it from far away.

suffixes

1. Mr Perry is a foreigner. He doesn't know our traditions.
Foreign+er= foreigner
2. The ruler of our country is the president.
Rule+ er= ruler
3. It was very noisy in the room.
Noise+ y= noisy
4. The boy sang so loudly, that I couldn't hear the music.
Loud+ly= loudly

Prepositions

TO

- This can happen to everyone.
- 'Listen to me carefully', -the teacher said.
- I need to speak to Elza face-to-face.
- Mom, maybe you can talk to my Maths teacher.
- We can write to her relatives in Germany.

OF

- I'm afraid of dogs.
- My friend is fond of music.
- We're proud of our country.
- I'm quite sure of her success.
- I'm tired of work, I want to have lunch

Fill in the gaps with the missing words in the correct form

School-leaver, schoolmate, school age, school day(s)

- I met my old, Paul Hill.
- The courses are also very popular with recent ... who have jobs.
- Go on, the ... isn't over yet.
- The ... of secondary education is 13 to 18.
- If I could live over the again...

Foreign, rule, noise, loud

- It's They're playing for dancers.
- Learning ... languages is very popular today.
- The ... is quite easy to understand.
- Feed your cat. It is meowing too

Home task

- Ex. 3 pp. 32-33 (read and translate)