

The 15th of December
Thursday

Meet Tiny

Tiny is a gnome.

He is kind,
smart, merry,
nice and funny.

Tiny likes Fish, Oranges, tOmatOes and sanDwiches.

Food

[f] – coffee, fish, fruit

[n] – orange, sandwich, corn

[p] – soup, potato, porridge

[i] – fish, porridge, milk

[m] – some, ham

[l] – a lot of, apple, lemon

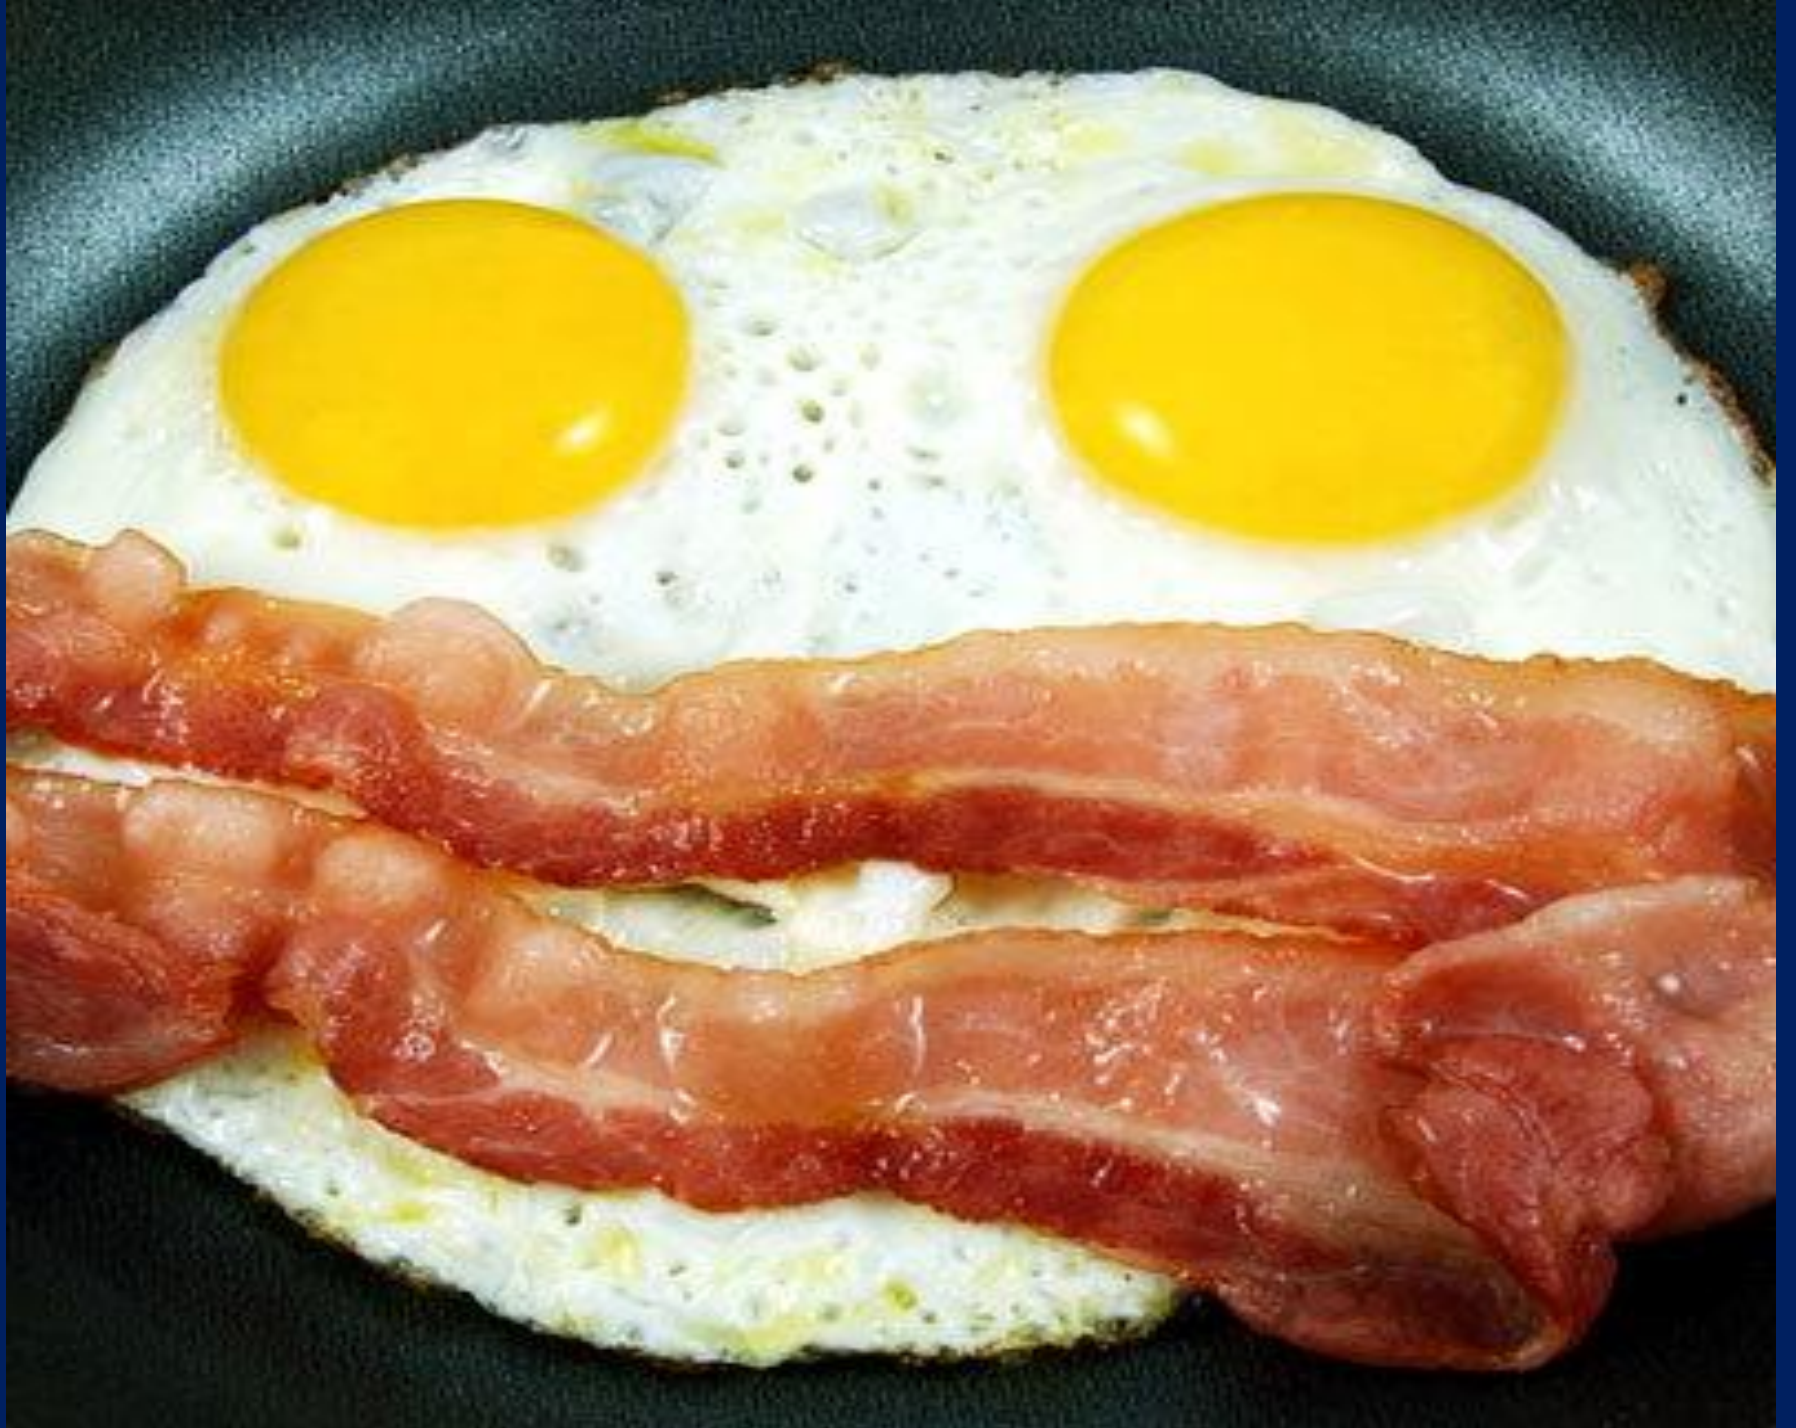

IMAGEBANK
TWICEBANK

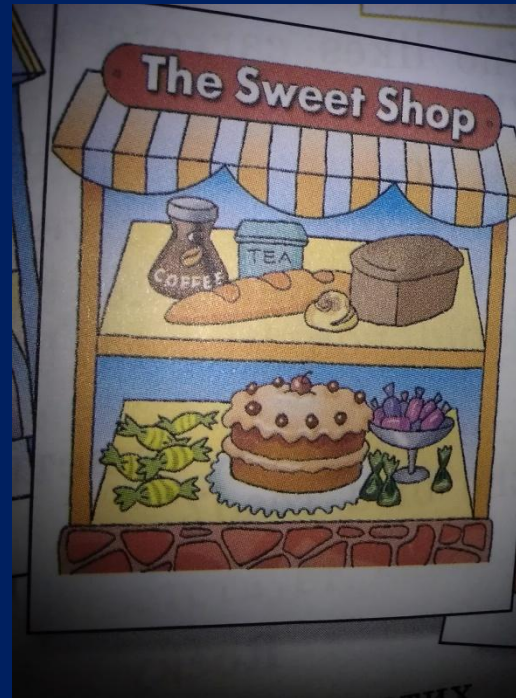

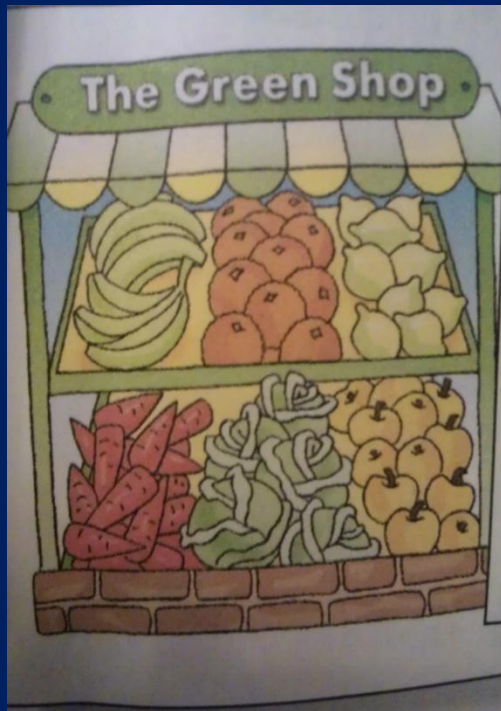

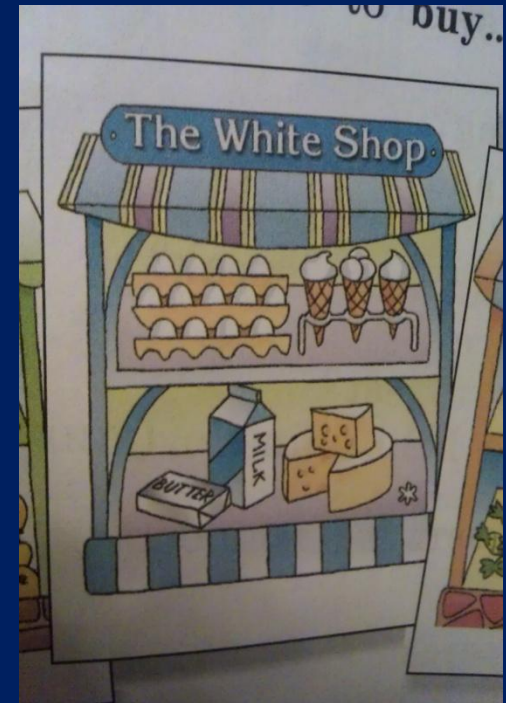

lgs.ru

The Sweet Shop

The Green Shop

The White Shop

Tiny: Do you Have any sweets?

Shop Assistant: Sorry, I don't. I have some biscuits and cakes.

Tiny: Yes, please. Could I have this cake?

Shop assistant: Of, course. Anything else?

Tiny: No, that's all. Thanks.

-Kate, do you like sweets?

-Yes, I do.

-Would you like some sweets?

-Yes, please.

-Help yourself.

-Thank you.

-Kate, would you like some ham?

-No, thank you.

On Monday I eat ...
On Tuesday I eat ...
On Wednesday I eat ...
On Thursday I eat ...
On Friday I eat ...
On Saturday I eat ...
On Sunday I eat ...

In England you may have what Englishman call “ full English breakfast”. First they bring you cereal and fruit juice, then you get bacon, eggs and tomatoes. Then comes toast and marmalade. You finish your breakfast with a cup of tea usually with milk. In fact English people don’t often have “full English breakfast”. They have just bread or toast with marmalade with a cup of tea or coffee. Sometimes they call it “continental breakfast”.

O, R, R, C, A, T

C, B, B, A, A, E, G

E, R, A, N, O, G

P, P, E, A, L

U, C, R, E, C, U, B, M

A, N, A, B, A, N

“An apple a day keeps the doctor away”

