Merry Christmas

A detailed painting of a snowy winter village at night. The scene is illuminated by warm, glowing lights from the windows of the houses, which are covered in snow and have icicles hanging from their roofs. A person wearing a red hat and a dark coat is walking away from the viewer on a snow-covered path that winds through the village. The path is marked with tracks, possibly from a sled or a dog. In the foreground, there are evergreen trees and a small evergreen tree lying on the snow. The background shows more houses and a church steeple, all set against a dark, starry night sky. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and festive.

THE VOYAGE OF THE DAWN TREADER

LUCY

Georgie Henley

Lucy Pevensie was the youngest of the four Pevensie children and was the first one to discover Narnia through the wardrobe. Although none of her siblings believed her, Lucy went there several times before the rest of them came, finally realizing she was telling the truth all along. She was crowned as "Queen Lucy The Valiant" at Cair Paravel. Lucy was the most faithful of the four and never stopped believing in Narnia.
