Christmas Tree

Christmas Tree is decorated with coloured glass balls and toys, sweets, bells, garlands
There is usually a bright star or the figure of the Christmas angel at the top of the tree.
The first Christmas Tree came to England in 1841 from Germany.
Nowadays, in London, near the statue of Lord Nelson in Trafalgar Square, a giant Christmas Tree is set up and decorated each year. The Tree is a present from the people in Oslo, Norway. It is believed that it brings good luck.

Let's decorate Christmas Tree

Santa Claus

Santa Claus, also known as Saint Nicholas, Father Christmas, or simply "Santa", is an old man who, in many brings gifts to the homes of the good children during the late evening and overnight hours of Christmas.

There are many different versions of Santa Claus around the world including Saint Nicholas in France, Kriss Kringle in Germany, Tisse in Denmark, Gran

Santa Claus is generally depicted as a plump, jolly, white-bearded man wearing a red coat with white collar and cuffs, white-cuffed red trousers, and black leather belt and boots. The name 'Santa Claus' comes from the Dutch Sinter Klaus, short for Sinter Nicholas or Saint Nicholas. Children write letters to Santa Claus and tell him what gifts they would like to get. Santa lives with a large number of magical elves, and nine (originally eight) flying reindeer. The magical elves help him in coming true children's dreams.

Birthplace of Santa Claus is Lapland. The same views are prevalent, the birthplace of Santa Claus is the North Pole.

The very first Santa picture

often depicted him wearing a variety of different colour coats including green, blue and mauve. The modern day depiction or picture of Santa Claus wearing a red coat only became standard in the 1920's.

Rudolf ("Рудольф").

The Red-Nosed Reindeer Rudolph pulls Santa in his sleigh.

B. Read about Rudolf!

Hello I'm Rudolf! I'm Santa's chief reindeer. Look at my nose! It's very red. I live at the North Pole with Santa for most of the year. It's very cold there. On Christmas Eve (24th December) I help Santa take the Christmas presents to good children. We fly through the air very fast. Santa has a big sleigh to carry all the presents. Maybe we'll bring YOU a present!

1. What colour is Rudolf's nose?
2. What kind of animal is Rudolf?
3. Where does Rudolf live?
4. What is Rudolf's job?

Christmas Stockings

On Christmas Eve children hang their Christmas stockings on their beds or near fire place. A Christmas stocking is not a real stoking. It is big and beautifully decorated. Children believe that Santa Claus will come down the chimney and fill the stockings with presents. A carrot for the deer is usually left on the mantelpiece. Откуда
