«Misha's visit to London»

Places which Misha visited in London:

- Trafalgar Square
- The Houses of Parliament
- Buckingham Palace
- Madame Tussaud's
- The London Eye
- The Greenwich Observatory
- The Tower of London
- Oxford Street

Trafalgar Square

In the centre of the square there is a big column. At the top of the column there is a statue of Admiral Nelson who had to fight the French at the Battle of Trafalgar in 1805.

The Houses of Parliament

From Trafalgar Square he went down the street and visited the Houses of Parliament. The British government is there. The guide told us about the history of the Parliament and the Gunpowder Plot.

Buckingham Palace

Buckingham Palace is the London home of the Queen. Misha could not go in because the Palace is not open to the public.

Madame Tussaud's

After Buckingham Palace he went to Madame Tussaud's. It's a famous museum of wax figures. They have wax figures of all the famous people in the world. I took a lot of pictures there.

The London Eye

In the evening of the first day he went to the London Eye. It's on the Thames. It's the largest observation wheel in the world and its very popular with tourists. We wanted a ride, but we couldn't buy tickets.

The Tower of London

Next day Misha went to the Tower of London which was a fortress, a castle, a prison and a zoo. Now it's the oldest museum in London.

The Greenwich Observatory

After the Tower of London he went to Greenwich. Three hundred years ago it was a village and now it's a part of London. Queen Elizabeth lived in Greenwich Palace. Then he went to the Greenwich Observatory. It is the centre of time and space because the prime meridian of the Earth passes there.

Oxford Street

Finally, Misha went to Oxford Street which is the biggest shopping street in London. He bought a lot of present for his family.
