

QUESTIONS

Yes / No questions

Most of them start with an auxiliary verb and expect an answer Yes or No.

Note: you can ask a yes / no question using the verb "to be" as a full verb (not an auxiliary) as well.

Wh-Questions

Most of them start with a question word such as:

What / Where / Why / Who / Whose / When / Which

How / how many / how often / how far / how much / how long / how old etc.

Tag questions (disjunctive or tail questions)

They are mini-questions asked at the end of a statement to confirm it.

Choice Questions

We use choice questions when we offer choices.

Embedded questions (indirect questions)

We use them in reported speech or in polite questions.

Write questions to which the words in bold are the answers.

Giant Pandas live in China. They are black and white animals that have round heads, small black ears and short tails. They sleep during the night. They sleep for about 8 hours. They always eat bamboo. Giant Pandas are about 150 cm tall and often weigh about 90 kilos. They can climb trees. They live for about 15 years.

Writing Activity

Imagine you are a reporter interviewing the famous actress.

Write the interview.