

Essay “Each Child Should Be Able To Play Some Musical Instrument”

KHMYROVA I.A.

Let's discuss the topic:

1. Do you think it's necessary for children to learn to play a musical instrument?
2. Can it help to enhance memory and to better concentrate?
3. Is it a good way to develop your listening skills and not only at an early age? When does the development of a person start?
4. Would you make your kid to learn to play some instrument?
5. Are there any disadvantages of teaching a child to play instruments?

Arguments:

PROS:

- 1) Increases the capacity of your memory, enhances your coordination and abilities like developing your ear for music (not only musical ones!);
- 2) Teaches you perseverance (настойчивость; усидчивость);
- 3) Fosters your self-expression, confidence and relieves stress;
- 4) Exposes you to cultural history;
- 5) Improves your reading and comprehension skills;
- 6) Improves emotional well-being.

CONS:

- 1) Not everyone is musically inclined (or has musical inclinations); Forcing an instrument upon someone is an unnecessary burden that could provide no benefits to certain people. That might not be your calling. Your calling might be that of a construction worker, a firefighter, a weather forecaster whatever.
- 2) Learning to play takes a lot of time and energy;
- 3) Children can become depressive because of hard work.

“Each Child Should Be Able To Play Some Musical Instrument”

What is your opinion? Do you agree with this statement?

Write 200–250 words.

- Use the following plan:
 - make an introduction (state the problem)
 - express your personal opinion and give 2–3 reasons for your opinion
 - express an opposing opinion and give 1–2 reasons for this opposing opinion
 - explain why you don’t agree with the opposing opinion
 - make a conclusion restating your position