WHO THEY ARE?

People with disabilities are those who are victims of illness, accident, or jokes of life. They are not like us, they are special, so they are often the object of ridicule and mockery

HOW DO THEY LIVE?

Being disabled is very difficult, because their individuality often does not help them in life, but worsens and complicates it, and you need to be not only physically strong, but also have a high morale, because it is very difficult to fight every day with the thoughts that you are not like everyone else, you are a "Freak".

WHAT DO THE OTHERS

DO

Others, in order not to hurt the feelings of the disabled, try to avoid the topic that worries them most - their shortcomings, and this is very good, because these people are actually our brothers, they live with us in one big house - the Earth.

VOLUNTEERS

Fortunately, the world is not without good people. Volunteers organize charity funds and support centers for the disabled, collect donations, help them with household chores, employment and even in their personal lives!

FIGHTING FOR BETTER LIFE

In turn, cripples go in for sports, regularly train to do those things that seem ordinary to us, but not to them. And, you know, they're very good at it, too. Many people live without contosta and win the Paralympics, be speakers, singers, lawyers, etc.

DESPITE ILLNESS

Striking example of this - Nick Vujicic, an Australian orator, writer, singer and philanthropist. Born with tetra Amelia syndrome, he did not give up and achieved success in his life and was even able to marry and make children!

NICK'S LIFE NOW

Now he is engaged in the motivation of such as he is to fight his illness. "My mission is to help people find their way in life," he said

THIS IS NOT THE END OF LIFE!

To sum up, I want to say that you should not be indifferent to the disabled and especially not to make fun of them and make fun of them, because life is very unpredictable thing, and the one who made fun of the "Freaks" he became the same!

A bodybuilder is shown from the waist up, wearing a red bandana with white patterns. He is smiling and making a hand gesture with his right hand, palm facing forward. He is wearing red and white striped briefs. The background is black.

Thank you for your attention!
