

Mini project

Differences in character between the British and the Americans: character, giving presents, class distinctions.

The British and the Americans are the same. Almost.

Conservatism.

Traditions and modernity.

- Not being like everybody else is a good reason not to change.

The British are reserved.
The Americans are open.

Nature vs urbanity.

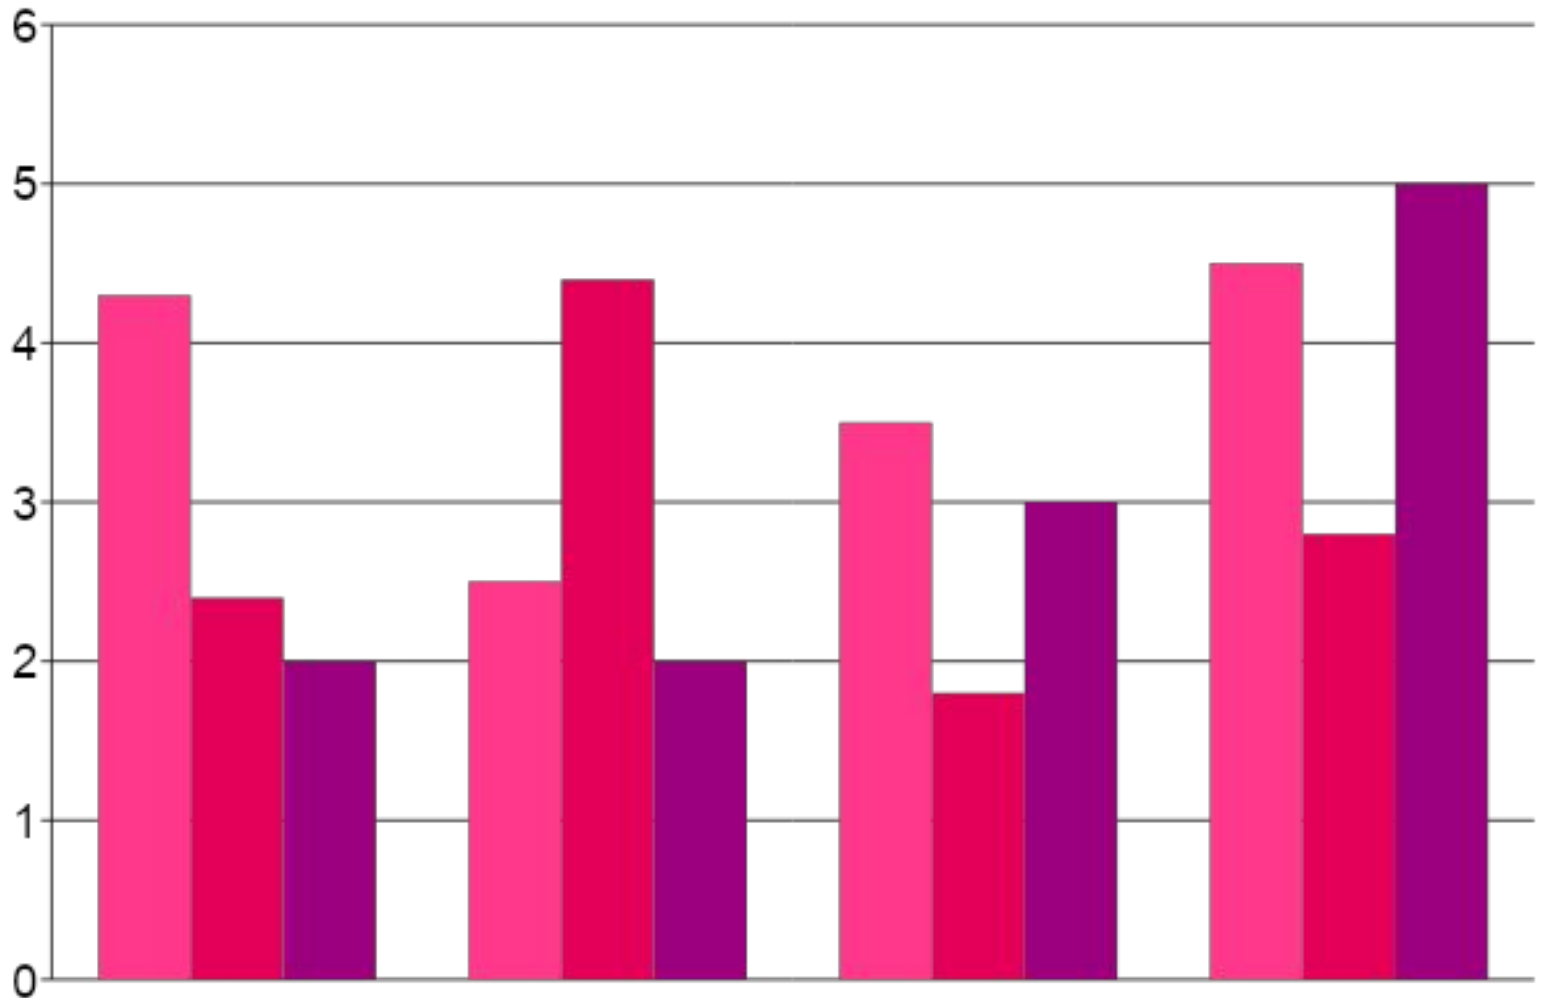

Family traditions vs individualism.

Giving presents.

Class distinctions.

Attitudes, interests and daily habits.

Upper-class.

Middle-class.

Working-class.

Something in common – privacy!

- Thanks for attention.
