Success is a sum of small efforts, repeated day in and day out.”Robert Collier.

A person's character is formed in childhood. Only people with strong character can be successful. But remember! Watching your thoughts, they become words. Watching your words, they become actions. Watching your actions, they become habits. Watching your habits, they become character. Watching your character, for it becomes your destiny.

SUCCESS.

- It is not wealth, not fame , nor rank, nor power nor honored name. This is not a Triumph of the art of best-selling books .It is not the applause of the crowd , the flame of flags, processions proud. Success is: 1. the favorable or prosperous termination of attempts (successful efforts);2. a person or thing that is successful.
