

My favourite book and my favorite writer

By: Guseynov Ruslan 8V

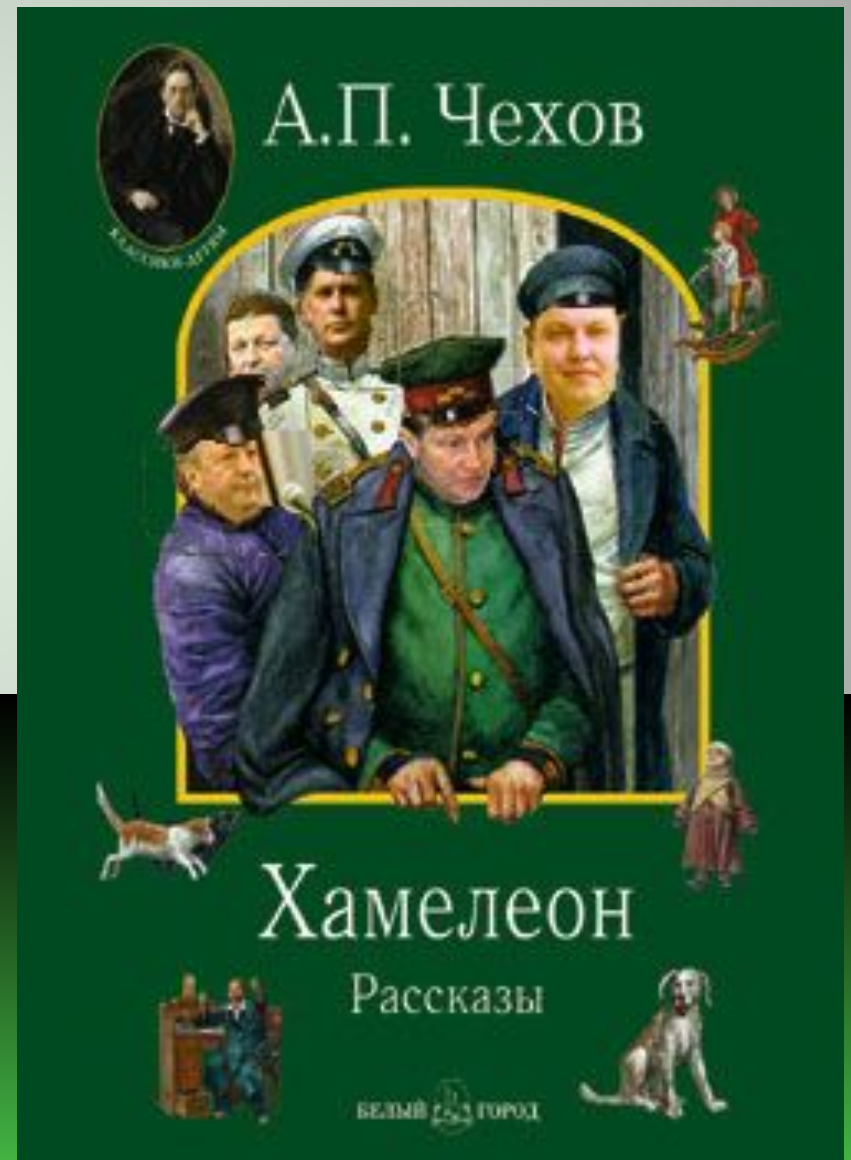

I am fond of humorous stories and legends and myths. So one of my favourite writer is A. Chehov.

The name of writer is Anton Chehov known to people of all world. Readers name him ‘the Master of the short story’.

The years of the writer's life are 1860-1904. He has written many stories and plays. I like his stories ‘A Horse surname’, ‘The Thick man and The thin man’, ‘Vanka’ and ‘Chameleon’.

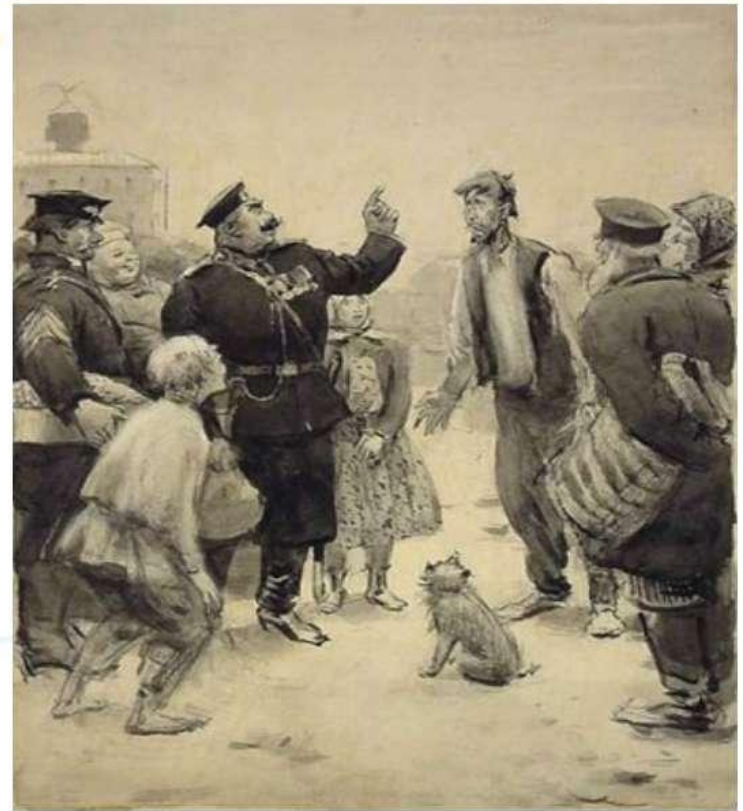

Anton Chehov wrote 'Chameleon' in 1884 year. It is the small ironical story about a double-faced policeman who changes the opinion constantly.

The author has told, policeman Ochumelov found out a small puppy bit respectable Mr. Hrjukin. The policeman started to find out who is an owner of the puppy. His decision about the ending of an affair depend on who is the owner: rich or poor man. Nobody knew who is the owner, people said different names. Ochumelov was nervous. When he heard a name of the rich man he praised the puppy and abused bitten Mr Hrjukin. When he heard a name of a poor man he threatened to punish the puppy's owner.

The policeman was a like a chameleon. Readers laugh at him.

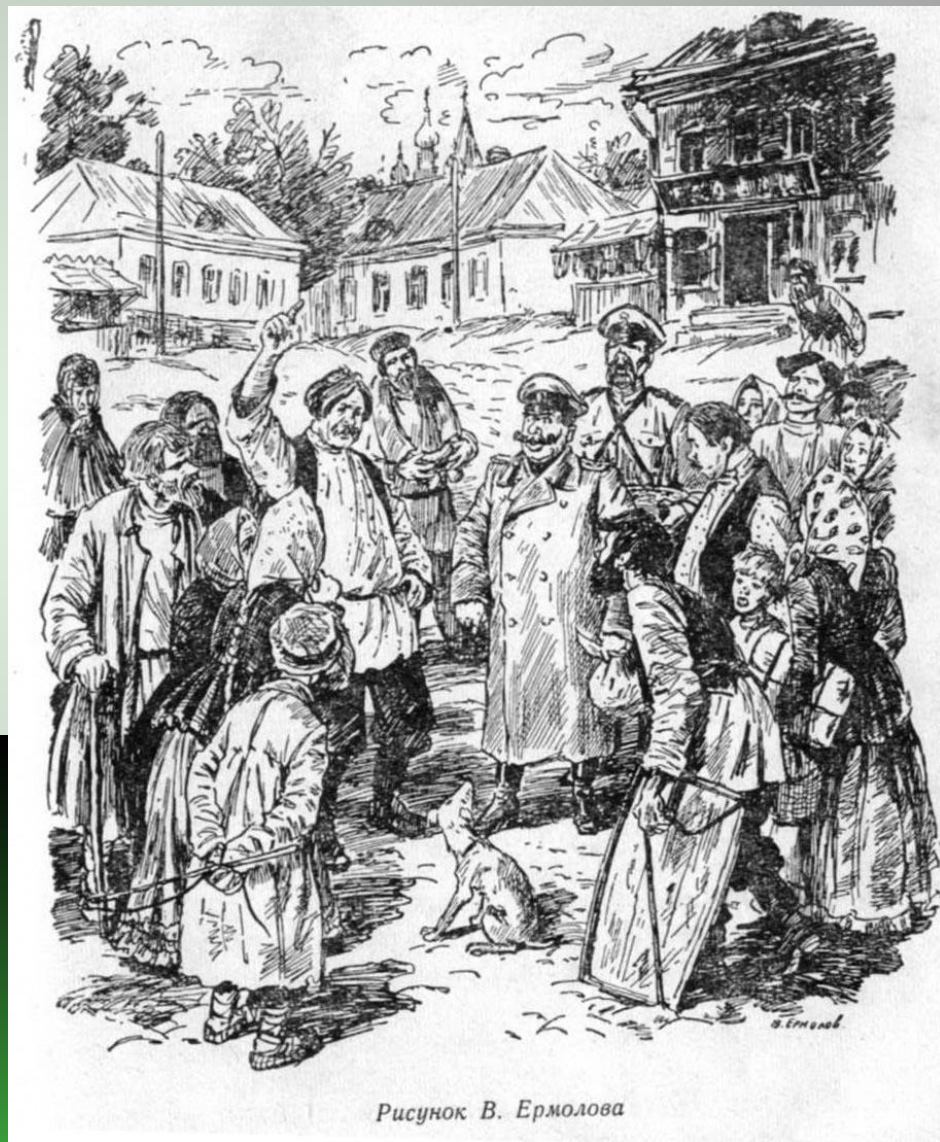

Mr. Hrjukin offended the puppy. Therefore the puppy bit Mr. Hrjukin. Ochumelov and Hrjukin are negative heroes of the story.

The author showed bad qualities of people as lie. But he showed them with humour. The story has turned out interesting, cheerful and instructive. I have liked it.

So it is one of the many reasons that make A. Chehov my favourite writer

Thanks for watching
