

Comment on the following statement.

Use the following plan:

Use the following plan:

1. make the introduction (state the problem)
2. express your point of view and give 2-3 arguments
3. express the opposite point of view and give 1-2 arguments supporting it
4. say why you disagree with the opposite point of view.
5. draw a conclusion.

Step 1.

Make the introduction.

Paraphrase the topic statement, use synonyms and different grammar constructions.

Both sides of the arguments.

Arguments for Arguments against

While it is true that it mustn't be forgotten that

....

There is a dispute....

There is no agreement ...

It is often argued that

According to

The problem of appears to be a hot question.

Step 2.

Give arguments for

As for...

To start with...

In fact...

As a matter of fact...

One point of view in favour of ...

Actually...

The fact is/The thing is/The point is...

It is not surprising that...

It's well known that...-

If my memory serves me right...

I believe...

As far as I know...

If I am not mistaken...

In my opinion...

The main advantage...
One major advantage...
It is important to remember...
Another argument is...
What is more...
Further more...
More than that...
Besides...
In addition...

Step 3.

Give arguments against.

However ...

On the other hand ..

But ...

Nevertheless ...

The main disadvantage of ...

The main drawback of ...

Even though ...

One argument against ...

Step 4.

Draw a conclusion.

To sum up ...

In conclusion I would like to stress ...

All in all I believe that ...

In general ...

To make a long story short...

Your task is to write an essay.

Use the following plan:

1. make the introduction (state the problem)
2. express your point of view and give 2-3 arguments
3. express the opposite point of view and give 1-2 arguments supporting it
4. say why you disagree with the opposite point of view.
5. draw a conclusion.

