

MY IDEAL FRIEND

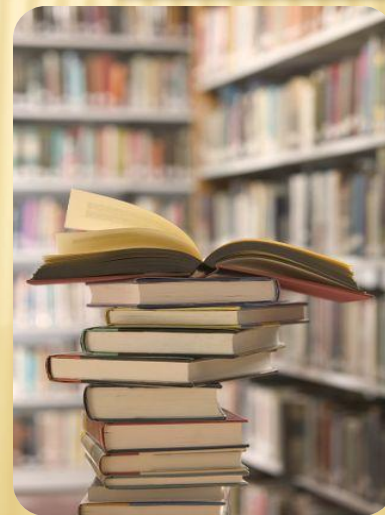

It was done by Dasha Korepina, form 7a.

I think my ideal friend should care and worry about me. If we are true friends, my problems are her problems and her ones are mine. We can not just let each other solve our problems without any help.

Moreover it is very important to have a person who is funny and easy to get along with. Friend do not talk about problems, all the time, they should have fun and relax together. That is why it is important to have the same sense of humor, the same interests and interesting things to

Besides, my ideal friend and me can share our secrets. We believe each other and are sure that we'll always keep each other's secrets. I am sure my ideal friend will never betray

- I'm happy to have such an ideal friend. She's Natasha.
- She is funny, considerate, loyal and lovely.

□ We spend a lot of time together. We were in a summer camp last year. It was really wonderful. We laugh all the time. We don't quarrel with each other, only sometimes, but not for a long time. We understand each other. Sometimes I think that my friend is my angel, Natasha is my angel.

IDEAL FRIENDS.

In conclusion I must say I am very happy to have such friend as Natasha. She is really fanny, considerate, loyal and lovely. I love her and value our friendship. I hope it will last forever.
