

REGIONAL KAZAKH DRAMA THEATRE, URALSK

DESCRIPTION

The opening of the Kazakh Drama Theater in Uralsk is a great event in the cultural life of Kazakhstan.

The theater was built according to the original design with modern technology and high quality finishing materials.

□ The opening of the theater building on the 11th of September 2002 was an event of the cultural life of entire Republic. President of Kazakhstan Nursultan Nazarbayev took part in the opening ceremony of the Kazakh Drama Theater.

It was built as part of social program of Karachaganak Petroleum Operating BV (KPO).

This is the first theater building in the independent Kazakhstan and a unique facility in the historic center of Uralsk.

MAISAM APANNA

The main auditorium is designed for 280 seats

Dimensions of the stage – 15 to 21 meters.

There are two rehearsal halls, a hall for public events, VIP lounge, shop fabrication of set design, top modern studio and a number of ancillary facilities

During 16 years of its activity the theater team twice won the national theater festivals, and as one of the best in the country, in 2005 the theater was given the honor to represent the dramatic art of Kazakhstan at the international theater festival in Egypt. Kazakh Drama Theater became a real cultural center, where meet and implement interests of various art and different spheres of public life.

West Kazakhstan, Uralsk,
Dostyk-Druzhby avenue, 185

West Kazakhstan, Uralsk, Dostyk-Druzhby avenue, 185

