

Hello, everyone!
I'm Raisa Nalbandyan.
Nice to meet you!

A large, multi-jet fountain in a park with people walking nearby and a blue thought bubble overlay.

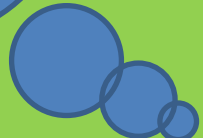

I live in Armavir.
It's a small, but very beautiful town!

I like to travel and learn something interesting about new places. I take a lot of pictures and make a short project about them.

Now I study at Armavir Legal College!
It takes a leading position among the educational institutions of our region 😊

I know that our town is multinational.
But... Just imagine!
Representatives of 24 nationalities study in our college.

And I decided to make a new project
“Let’s talk culture”

I asked for help our social pedagogue. Her name is Oksana Glebova. And this is the information about our students she gave me.

Now all them live in Armavir. It's fantastic!

Do you want to know

HOW

they live here?

There is an international friendship club (IFC) in our college.

The objectives of the IFC:

1)

- Organization of cultural leisure of students;

2)

- Strengthening of friendly relations between students of different nationalities;

3)

- Instilling a spirit of peace, rejection of nationalism, racism, extremism and terrorism;

4)

- Expansion of students' knowledge about the language, history, culture, customs of different peoples.

Cooperation with organizations:

1)

- All national communities of our town;

2)

- Library of national literature of Russia and foreign countries named after N. Nekrasov;

3)

- Armavir local branch of the Russian geographical society;

4)

- Armavir Museum of local lore;

5)

- Exhibition hall of Dangulov's house;

6)

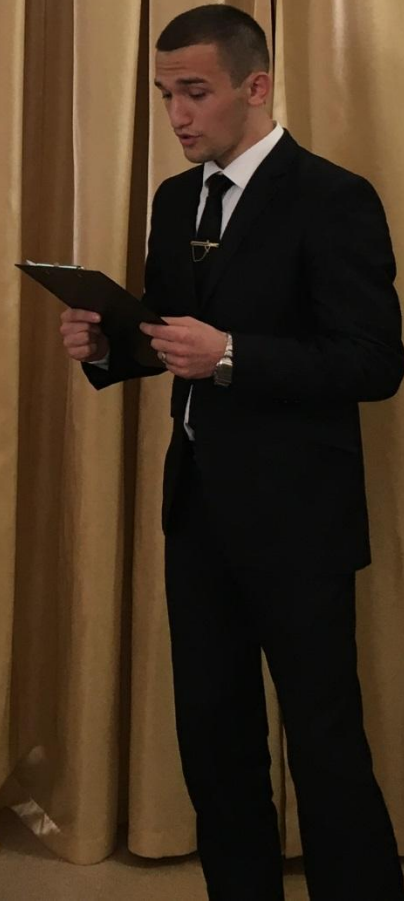

- Art-corner "Romance"

Our students take part in different competitions.

They present their projects about their native places...

...and read poetry in their native language.

They cook national dishes.

They live as friends and work together to make future better than the past!

As for me, I am Armenian. I also take an active part in the life of our club and learn a lot about the culture of my people.

Thanks for your attention

Have a nice day!
