

Christmas Day, December 25, is the most popular holiday in Great Britan

It is a family holiday. Traditionally all relatives and friends give each other presents

After the lunch they go to the sitting room to listen to the Christmas speech of the Queen, shown on TV

The Christmas trees are set up in houses, in the streets and churches. The Christmas trees are always decorated with fairy lights, angels and small toys.

Little packets with nuts, candies and special biscuits are hung on the tree.

Presents are put around the tree.

People decorate their houses in the traditional way.
Holly and mistletoe are used to decorate the house.

Usually children come around in the evening to the front doors and sing carols. People give children candies, nuts and pies.

So Christmas is a merry family holiday for all the people of Great Britain!

A festive background of Christmas gifts wrapped in various ribbons and bows. The gifts are wrapped in red and white plaid, white with black polka dots, and red and white striped ribbons. Some gifts have handwritten labels, such as "LUCY to" and "to MAX". The background is filled with gold and silver tinsel and other holiday decorations.
