

EDUCATION?

«I want to study in USA...but I don't know from what to start...»

- Well, first of all you need to decide who you want to be in the future
- When you decided whom you want to be then comes the choice of specific institutions
- You'll have to spend more than one hour and not one day to make a list of universities that would satisfy your ambitions, desires, location, rating, requirements.

What are the requirements to enter to an American university?

- Depends on what are you going to do and also depends on the university or college and even from the department. You need to look on the website of the university ...in the requirements.
- Typically, this is the test results, recommendations from teachers, employer, an essay about how I am good and why they should take yourself...

What level of language needed to pass the tests?

- The better the language, the more chance to get the necessary points.

Many universities in Russia offer their students exchange programmes when students can go to foreign countries ...for what?

- to improve their English
- to make friends
- to learn about traditions and customs of other countries
- and finally to become independent.

What would you do in my place??

you shouldn't give up. fight for yourself and who you are. you've got to go through the worst times in life to get the best.
