In 1587 William went to work in London, leaving Anne and the children at home. Since then he devoted all his life to acting, writing plays and to the Globe Theatre. In 1613 he stopped writing and went to live in Stratford . He died on 23 April 1616.*

He wrote a lot of comedies and tragedies Among them are: Hamlet As you like it, King Lear, Othello, Henry V, Macbeth, The Taming of the Shrew, Richard III, Romeo and Juliet, Twelfth Night, A Midsummer Night's Dream, Much Ado about Nothing and many, many other plays and sonnets.

Hamlet is one of the most famous tragedies. Hamlet, the prince of Denmark is a student. His father died and his mother, Queen Gertrude, marries a new king. Hamlet hates his mother for marrying him. Listen to his philosophical thinking. It was written in 1604.
