

灌 The Sights Of Great Britain

Westminster Abbey

To 1,365 year English coronation regalia, the crown jewels and the state Treasury were kept in Westminster Abbey. The Treasury was in the dungeon under the дормиториум - a huge room with wooden vaulted ceiling, who used to be the bedroom of the monks, and which is now available library.

The national gallery

Description: national gallery was founded by king George IV, who demanded from the government of the acquisition of the collection of 38 paintings, among which were the six works of Hogarth's.

Stonehenge

A giant construction of Stonehenge - stone-riddle in the heart of Europe , as called this amazing monument one of the researchers, Dr. Умлмор Тревер. This ancient building located in England,

Manhattan on the Thames

In 1987 on the project of the Argentine architect Cesar Pelli in London Доклендсе, on the so-called the Isle of Dogs has grown the first high-rise building Canary Wharf is the highest in the UK.

Trafalgar square

Living in Trafalgar square (Trafalgar Square) pigeons moved here from coastal British rock. Now their rock - the cross of the Church of Saint Martin, the dome of the National gallery and the National portrait gallery and the three-cornered hat Admiral Nelson, who is on a 44-meter column.

Royal Palace

In Kensington gardens is located Kensington Palace, where she was the Princess of Wales with two sons.

Thames

The Thames, which is called and the "water of history", and "the most spectacular river in Europe", adorned with a multitude of bridges and tunnels, but before the opening of the corner of Westminster bridge in 1750r. London bridge was the only one across the Thames.

HAMPTON Court

Built in 1515-1520 years as a personal residence Вольси, this Palace became a little later in the beautiful Palace of England. The Royal family, located in the Palace, expanded and beautified it

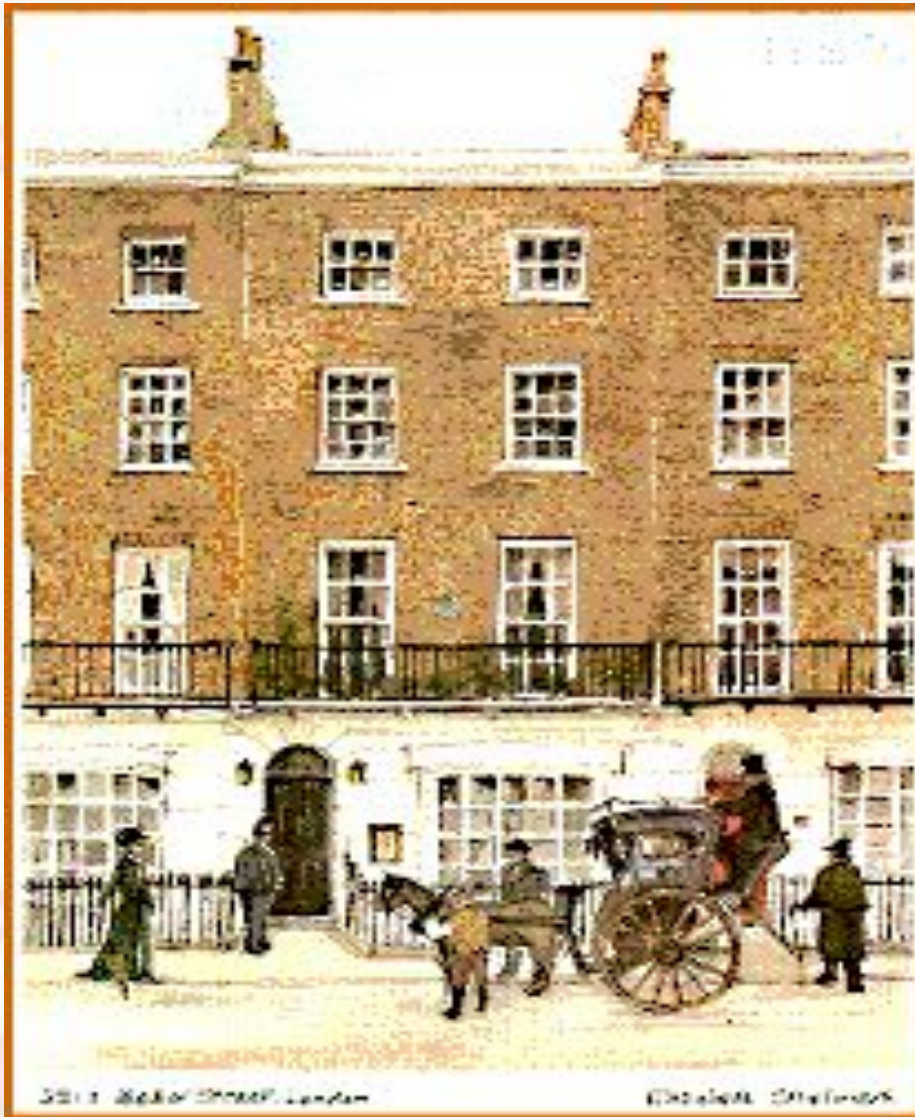

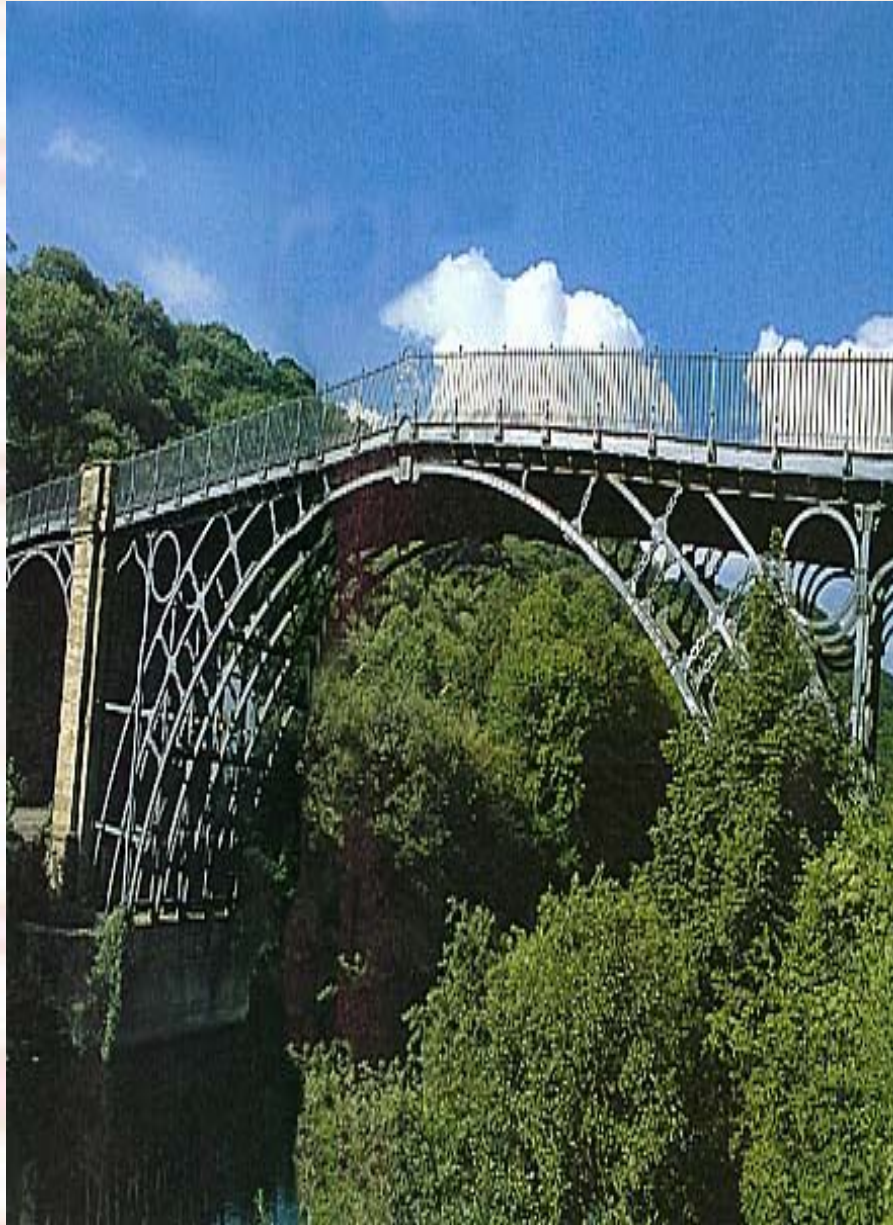

Big Ben

The clock on the tower of the Parliament of the United Kingdom hear all over the world. The microphones of the air force transmit their fight every hour. It is with the first stroke of big Ben in the night of 31 1 the planet officially by the international time standard must enter the new Millennium.

The House Of Sherlock Holmes

The house of Sherlock Holmes was built in 1815. The British government declared that the building is an architectural and historical monument of the 2nd rank. From 1860 until 1934 house was a private property, and in it was located hostel, until the building was not acquired the International society of the name of Sherlock Holmes.

Cast-iron bridge

The impression that this bridge was built in the woodlands, is deceptive. In fact, this elegant building is located in the area of great Britain, where historically developed industry. This bridge is the fruit of the efforts, experience and ingenuity of the masters-чугунолитейщика Abraham Derby and his apprentices. The bridge is made in parts, was mounted in 1779, for several months without stop navigation.

Parliament

Tower height of 97 meters, on which there are the Palace chimes, stands in the Eastern part of the architectural complex known as the houses of Parliament.

Edinburgh Castle

Castle (225 9846, is located in the heart of the city, it can be seen from anywhere, any bus that goes through the center of Edinburgh, necessarily makes a stop nearby) in the direct and figurative sense prevails over the town: in the sense of height, entertainment, age and historical significance.

Thank you for your attention!!!