It's very important to have good classmates, because we spend a lot of time together. And certainly it's nice when your classmates are good people.

There are 26 pupils in our class — 11 boys and 15 girls.

We take part in different intellectual and sport competitions.

There are many talented students in our class. Most of them visit the School of music and art and some of them practice sports.

But sometimes we like to relax and celebrate our holidays together.

We bring a cake, drink tea with our class-teacher.

Our class-teacher is English teacher. She is a wonderful woman. We love her and she likes and respects us.

I like all of students in our class. I suppose I am very lucky, because I have such great people around me.
