

FOOTBALL

Game Rules

- Separate football game is called a match consisted of two times for 45 minutes. The pause between the first and the second time makes 15 minutes, during which the team have a rest, and after that the teams exchange their gates.

Football in the word

In 2001 published the data about people who took part in playing football. The number is 250 million persons. Among them there were more than 20 million

ed

al

Football clubs

Football clubs are basic part of the whole football structure. They are a link among football players, personnel and organizations. As a matter of fact it is a team of football players who enter one of the organizations, which have a definite infrastructure and serving personnel.

