PAUL

THE BEATLES
Who would have guessed that four lads from Liverpool, England named John, Paul, George, and Ringo would change music forever? More than 75 million people watched The Beatles debut on the "Ed Sullivan Show" on February 9, 1964. In ten years The Beatles created some of the world's best-loved songs such as "Yesterday," "Yesterday Afternoon," "I Wanna Hold Your Hand," and "Hey Jude," and their inspiring mix of pop-like catchiness and serious social commentary influenced musicians everywhere and helped define the 60s.
