The aim of the project: to develop a virtual tour in the form of a multimedia presentation about main cities of Great Britain using the English language.

•The tasks of the project:

- from the rich amount of information to choose and systematize the most interesting material in the English language;
- describe the most famous cities of Great Britain and what each city is known for;
- prepare the English presentation of the project;
- develop of speaking skills.

The list of cities in the UK includes more than ninety names. In this presentation, I will describe the seven main centers of political, social and cultural life.

1. The centre of everything in Great Britain is the city of London. London consists of four main districts, which differ from each other. These are the City, Westminster, the West End and the East End.

Liverpool is a large city in the UK with a population of more than 450 thousand people. Liverpool glorified the group "the Beatles", known around the world.

- Oxford is a city in the Central part of southern England, which gained worldwide fame thanks to its University founded in the XII century.

Cambridge is a city on the Kama River in Eastern England. It houses the prestigious University of Cambridge, founded in 1209 (13 century).

- Edinburgh is Scotland's capital and the second largest city by population in Scotland. The population of Edinburgh is about 500 thousand people. It is the seventh largest city in the United Kingdom by population. (London, Birmingham, Liverpool, Glasgow, Belfast, Sheffield, Edinburgh).

- Belfast is the capital of Northern Ireland, where it was launched on the British transatlantic steamship "Titanic" collided with an iceberg and sank in 1912.

- Cardiff is the largest city and capital of Wales. It is a unitary administrative unit with the status of city, which was obtained due to the rapid growth of industry in the region and the use of Cardiff as the main port for the transportation of coal from Wales.

Conclusion:

- Every city in the UK is beautiful, interesting, filled with its sights, famous people and events in the history of the UK.
