A night-time photograph of the London Eye, a large Ferris wheel in London. The wheel is illuminated with warm white lights, and its central structure is lit with blue lights. The surrounding trees are also decorated with blue lights, creating a festive atmosphere. The sky is a deep blue, and the overall scene is captured in a low-angle shot, making the wheel appear to arch over the viewer.
