

The country and the city

Countryside

A cow says

woof-
woof

A cat says

mew-
mew

A dog says

moo
-moo

A turkey says

baa-b aa

gobbl
e-gob
ble

A duck says

qua
ck-q uack

A sheep says

Read the text.

Complete am/is/are

Hello! I am Jack. I live in the country. There is a big forest in my place. There are many animals and birds in the forest. The houses are nice and small in the country. There is a blue river near my house. There are a lot of flowers in the fields.

City

The girl's name is Sophie .

- a) Sophie b) Silvia c) Sveta

She lives in an old English town .

- a) country b) city c) town

There are many small houses in it.

- a) nice b) small c) big

You can see many green parks in Oxford.

- a) trees b) parks c) flowers

She's got a lot of friends at home.

- a) friends b) teachers c) classmates

She thinks Moscow is a beautiful city.

- a) beautiful b) green c) nice

She would like to visit Moscow again.

- a) like b) would like c) likes

Read the phrases

small houses, tall houses , nice parks,
cars and people, animals and birds,
a lot of farmers, big gardens, dirty
streets, clean rivers, a good zoo, green fields, small bridges, large shops

In the city

tall houses
nice parks
cars and people
a good zoo
large shops
dirty streets

In the country

small houses
animals and birds
a lot of farmers
clean rivers
green fields
small bridges

Where do people live?

Some people live in...

Where the houses are very small.

Some people live in ...

Where the houses are very tall.

But in ... where the houses are small

The gardens are very big.

And in ... where the houses are tall

There are no gardens at all.

Where do you live?

Parabel

