Kurdyum 2019

After the October revolution, the first school on literacy elimination was organized in the house of the track crawler Ivanov.

In the 30-ies was opened primary school. Further education children received in the railway boarding school in Saratov.

In October 1941, at the request of parents, a seven-year school was opened at Kurdyum station. Children studied in two buildings: in Selenkino and Kurdyum. They had a change to run to class in Selenkino from Kurdyum. The first Director was Eremin V. N.

In 1954, a new brick building was built in which we are studying today. There is an apple garden around the school.

In 1971, a new school and gym were attached to it.

The Museum of Military and labor glory was opened to the 30th anniversary of the Victory over fascism. It has 6 sections. In 1996, he was awarded the certificate "School Museum".

The first section of our Museum is devoted to the history of the school.

In 2016, we celebrated the anniversary of our native school. In preparation for the 75th anniversary of the school, we have collected a rich material about graduates, among whom are colonels of the Russian Army, interior Ministry, Honorary education workers, Deserved doctors of Russia.

A black and white photograph of a city skyline at night. The Empire State Building is the most prominent feature, illuminated from top to bottom. Other skyscrapers are also lit up, creating a dense pattern of lights against the dark sky. The foreground shows a body of water reflecting the city lights.
