Read the text and answer the questions

- When do people celebrate Easter?
- What do they celebrate?
- What are the symbols of Easter?
- What do people do at Easter?

Easter is celebrated on the first Sunday after the first full moon in spring. That's why it's on a different date each year. People celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ on Easter Sunday. Many people celebrate the beginning of spring. One of the oldest Easter symbols in the world is the egg. Exchanging and eating Easter eggs and hot cross buns is a popular tradition in many countries. The eggs are dyed in different colours. Nowadays people give each other Easter eggs made of chocolate.

The most popular Easter games with eggs are "Egg hunt" and "Egg rolling". The legend says an "Easter bunny" hides eggs in the garden and children have to find them on Easter morning. The eggs are put in a basket. Egg rolling is very popular in England, children roll hard-boiled eggs down a hill.
