

A city mouse

A country mouse

Lead unhealthy lifestyle

Beautiful landscapes

Peace and quiet Heavy traffic

High rate of unemployment

High quality lifestyle

Constant noise & pollution

High cost of living

Convenient public transport

Feeling

isolated

Fresh air

Shops, cinemas and theatres

Crowded streets

Friendly, helpful people

Low rate of employment

TEENAGE LIFE SWAP

HOW DO YOU SAY IT IN ENGLISH?

- Меняться семьями
- Скотный двор
- Доить коров
- В хлеву
- Кормить цыплят
- Я не могу выносить запах
- Чувствовать себя изолированным
- Многолюдные улицы
- Рядом
- Шум и суета

TEENAGE LIFE SWAP

HOW DO YOU SAY IT IN RUSSIAN?

- Make breakfast
- Go shopping
- By tube
- A huge school
- Helpful friends
- To love the facilities
- To get a bit homesick
- To miss the beautiful landscapes
- Hometown
- Lovely family

WHO DOES THIS?

- _____ are swapping families and schools for a week.
- _____ brings Annabel a cup of tea in bed.
- _____ is friendly to Annabel at school.
- _____ misses hustle and bustle of London.
- _____ go shopping on Oxford Street.
- _____ loves the facilities at school.
- _____ misses the beautiful landscapes and the people from her hometown.

FINISH THE SENTENCES

- Annabel lives in _____.
- Sarah lives on a farm in the _____ of Scotland.
- Annabel goes outside to the _____ to help_____.
- Today they are _____ the cows in the _____ and _____ the chickens.
- Annabel feels _____ on the farm.
- _____ is making breakfast for Sarah.
- Sarah travels to Annabel's school by _____.
- She is enjoying_____ but most of all she loves_____.
- It's always _____ in London and you can hear_____ all night.
- Sarah misses _____ and_____.