Tour of Magnitogorsk

Lets begin...

We start the tour from the left bank of the Ural River, where the plant is located, and residential buildings built from 1929 to 1940.

From the mountain Karadyrki seen a magnificent panorama of MMK - the largest in our country.

- The first stop on the street Pioneer, the house № 27. On the street, which is now growing lilacs and poplars begin to create our socialist city. This is the first major building in Magnitogorsk. Until 1930 there was in Magnitogorsk no capital home. By the summer of 1930 it was decided that the city of Magnitogorsk will.

July 5, 1930 in the presence of 14 thousand workers laid the foundation of the first house social town. It was hard to imagine that here in the bare steppe, over time, grow huge residential neighborhoods. But the builders, armed only with picks and shovels firmly believed - this city is bound to be. Many builders have come from Russian, Bashkir, Tatar villages have never been to the city, but believed in his dream.

We are at the first major residential building in the streets of the Pioneer. This four-story rectangular building, typical house residential development of 30-ies. These houses - the first, which begins with the city. Apartments here are getting the best workers - construction drummers, it's a good envied those who lived in the barracks.

Along with the apartment buildings were built schools, hospitals.

- We reach the prospect of Pushkin. This is the first avenue of the city, it was built up in 1947. The project is planned so that it was convenient and transport, and pedestrians. The length of the avenue 1,800 meters, width 42 meters. This avenue was built circus, the park and the first sound cinema "Magnit" (1932).

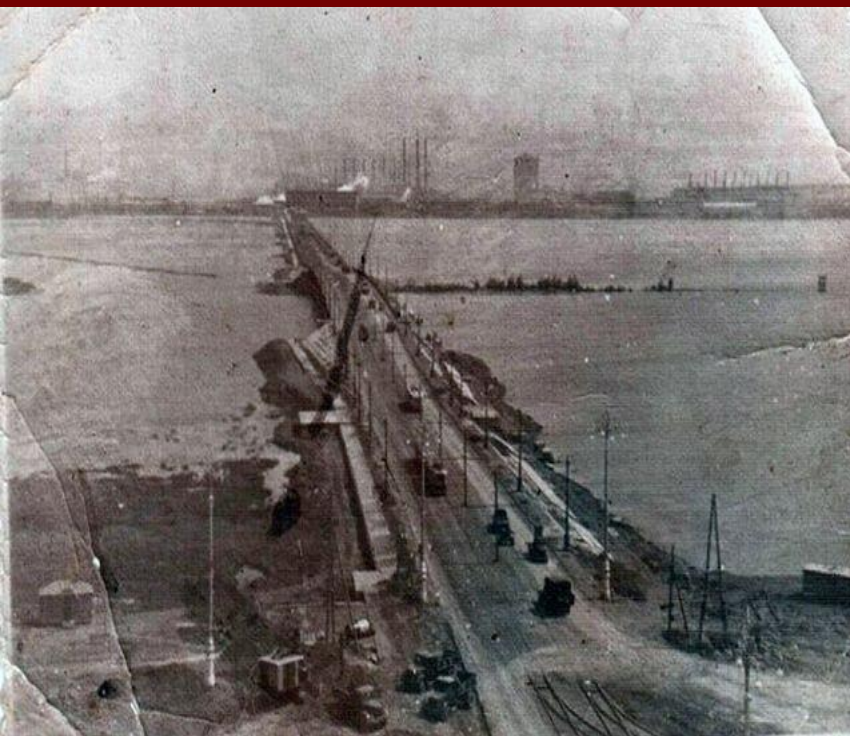

At the Victory Square in 1936, the theater was built, the area itself until 1967 was called the Theatre. In size it was more than the Red Square in Moscow. In November 1947, in honor of the 110th anniversary of the birth of Alexander Pushkin on the wide staircase was a monument to Russian poet. This is one of the first monuments in the city.

The material - reinforced concrete with a granite crumb.

Author - Moscow sculptor S.D.Merkulov.

Teatralnaya Square in 40-50 years was the site of festivals, here in the spring riding on threes, sell pancakes at the boiling samovar - celebrated Carnival.

- In Pushkin Avenue we get on Kirov Street, past the houses social town, go to the bridge, "the central transition", which connects the right bank to the left bank.
- Every day, thousands of residents of the city on buses, trams, cars, the four bridges across the river Ural, from Europe are sent to work in Asia.
- The central bridge built concrete obelisks, which listed the names of two continents.

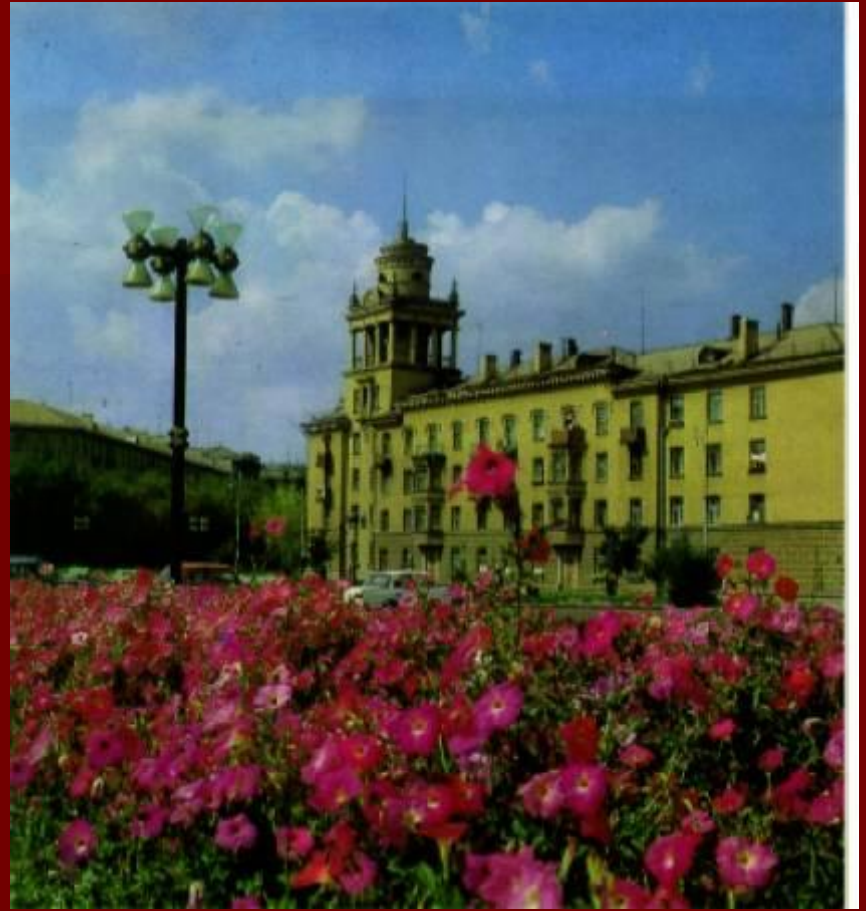

- We turn right, go down the street Stroiteley and stop at the stop "The first tent" on Sverdlov Square. Architecture and sculpture included in the park area, with access to the factory pond. We see on the left side plate rolling and oxygen-converter shop.
- And now we are at the monument "tent the first builders", open May 9, 1966 on the day of a meeting of the first builders of Magnitogorsk.
- Authors: L.I.Golovnitsky sculptor, architect E. Alexandrov.
- The composition is dedicated to the first builders of Magnitogorsk.

The weekend at the monument "The first tent" come dozens of wedding cars, the young couple are photographed at the monument, laying flowers as a tribute to the builders.

- In 1967 the mill was 1,000,000 tons Furnace steel monument "Metallurg Magnitogorsk" gave the city as a symbol of people's fiery profession.

- And we have many over different interesting thing in our city:
