

Look at the photos and make up sentences!

to be born in

to study at Oxford to write different kinds of...

to admire his wonderful...

FAIRY TALES OF OSCAR
WILDE

ILLUSTRATED • BY
P. CRAIG RUSSELL

THE BIRTHDAY OF THE INFANTA

Remember the words and translate the sentences with them!

to dawn on (upon) somebody – осенить

The truth began to dawn upon him

despair – отчаяние

He was filled with despair when he saw it.

Princess - принцесса

The little Princess was playing with her companions.

to mock – насмехаться

The naughty boys mocked at his ugliness.

merely – просто

I merely asked his name.

to moan – стонать, moan - стон

We were listening to the moan of the wind on a winter evening.

to crawl – ползти

wounded – раненый

He crawled like some wounded thing into the shadow of the tree.

to exaggerate - преувеличивать

exaggeration – преувеличение

You exaggerate the difficulties.

Read the sentences to the given illustrations

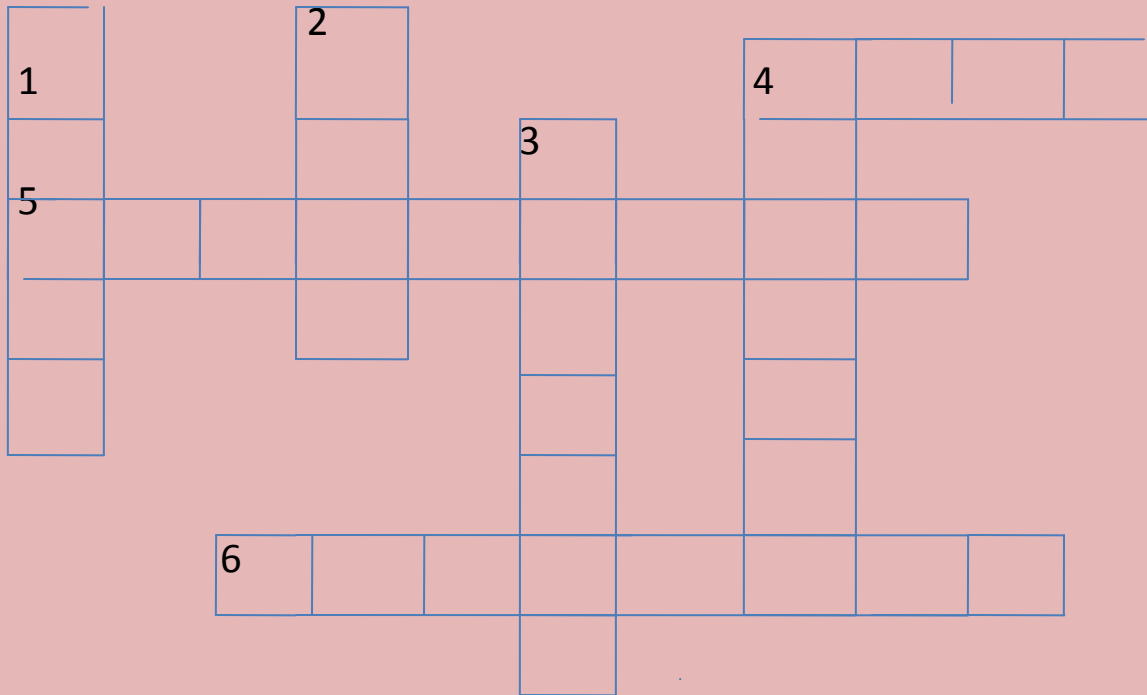

Do the Crossword!

Down

1. The main character of the story
2. The flower in his hands
3. To repeat somebody`s actions
4. An object in the mirror

Across

4. To laugh at somebody
5. The feeling of joy
6. The way of showing something with one`s hands

The answers to the crossword

Down

1. Dwarf
2. Rose
3. Imitate
4. Monster

Across

4. Mock
5. Amusement
6. Gestures

Oscar Wild was born in Dublin.

O. Wild studied at Oxford.

He wrote different kinds of works: poems, novels, plays and fairy tales.

People admire his wonderful books.

Источники

Е.Б.Полякова, Г.П. Раббот “English for teenagers” под редакцией Товы Перлмуттер и Хайди Кэтлин Хиллис, центр гуманитарных наук при факультете журналистики МГУ им. Ломоносова, Москва 1997 г.

О. Wild “The Birthday of the Infanta”

<http://www.youtube.com/watch>

http://yandex.ru/images/search?img_ur