On October 31st British people celebrate Halloween. It is the most colorful and exciting holiday of the year.

Halloween is time for fun. It is very dear to those who celebrate it, especially to children and teenagers.

Streets and houses are decorated with pumpkins.

The traditional decoration is Jack-o-lantern. People cut holes in the pumpkin and put a candle inside. It looks frightening at night!

In ancient times people made fires and danced around them. They hoped to frighten evil spirits and to bring warmth to their houses.

Children dress up, go from house to house and cry: “Trick or treat”? You are to give them some tasty things or they will play a trick on you.
