

How many oranges are there...?

*By Irina Berdnikova,
The teacher of English,
Agalatovo
2013*

There is, there are...

- There is a peach on the plate.
- Is there a peach on the plate?
- Yes, there is. No, there isn't.
- There are some coconuts on the tree.
- Are there any coconuts on the tree?
- Yes, there are. No, there aren't.
- There aren't any coconuts on the tree.

Ask and answer

Rylik.ru

- any, there, pears, the basket, in, are ?
- Are there any pears in the basket?
- Yes, there are.

Is there?

- There is a carrot in the photo.
- Is there a carrot in the photo?
- Yes, there is
- (No, there isn't)

There is some flour in the photo.

Is there any flour in the plate?

Yes, there is.

(No, there isn't)

How many ?

-
-
-

How many pears are there ?

A lot

How many pears are there ?

- Not many

Свежие плоды и цветки груши в корзинке
© Татьяна Пинчук / Фотобанк Лори

How much?

How much orange juice is there?

A lot

How much orange juice is there?

Not much

Put the words in order

- bananas, there, the box, in, how many, are?
- How many bananas are there in the box?
- isn't, there, tomato, the bottle, juice, in, much.
- There isn't much tomato juice in the bottle.
- The pepper, please, pass, you, me, can?
- Can you pass me the pepper, please?
- tea, sugar, much, there, not, my, is, in.
- There is not much sugar in my tea.

Make up a sentence

