

New York and it's sights

New York is on the Hudson River and New York is the most popular city in the United States. New York City consists of five boroughs — The Bronx, Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens, and Staten Island and they were consolidated into a single city in 1898. The City is a global economic center, with its business, finance, trading, law, and media organizations influential worldwide. The city is also an important cultural center, with many museums, galleries, and theatres.

The five boroughs:

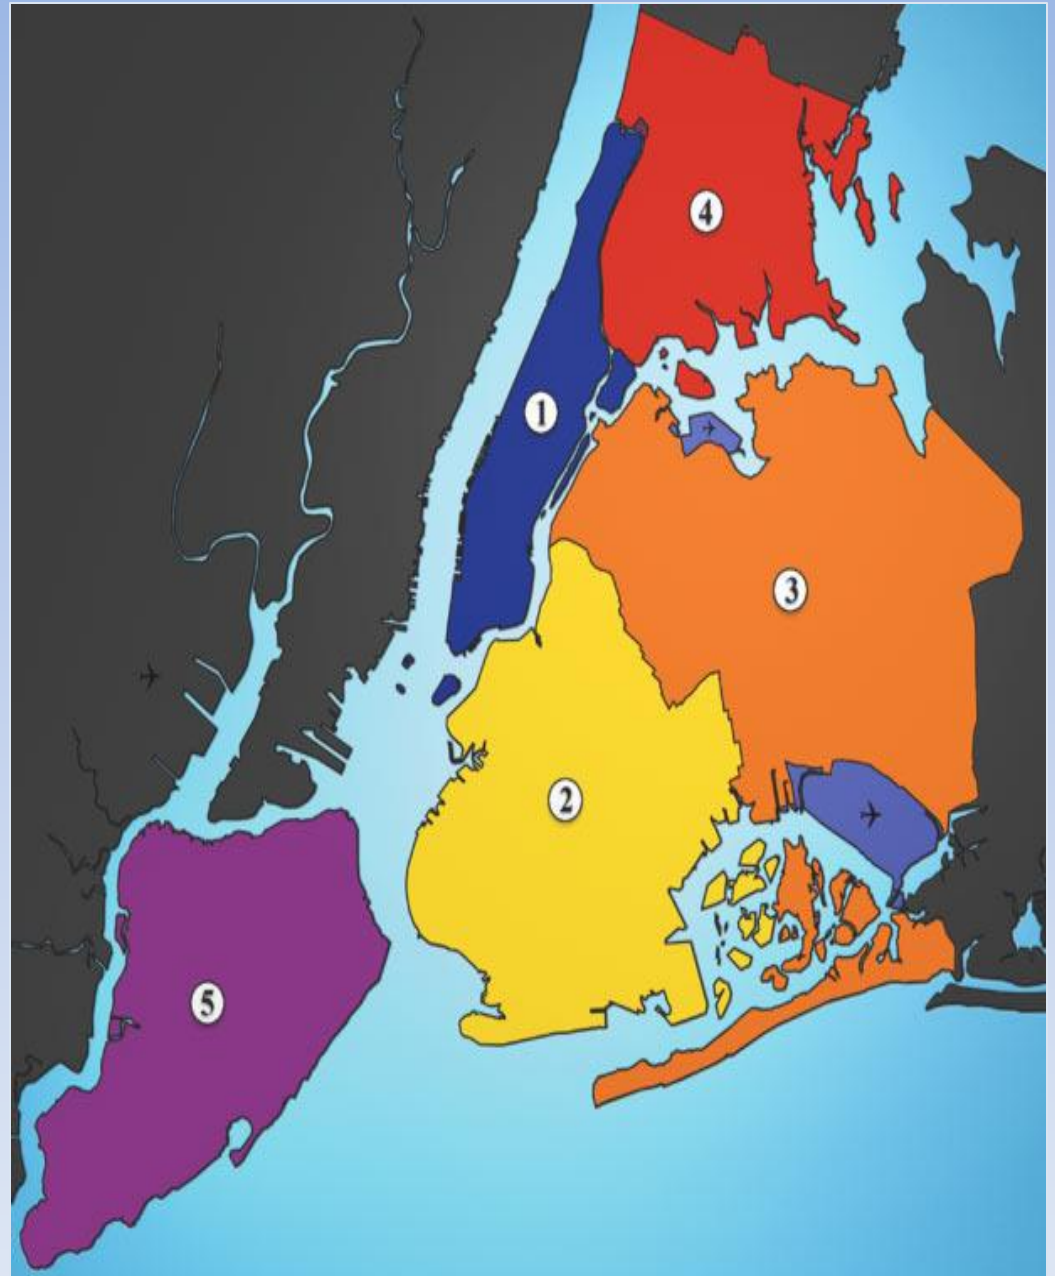

1. Manhattan

2. Brooklyn

3. Queens

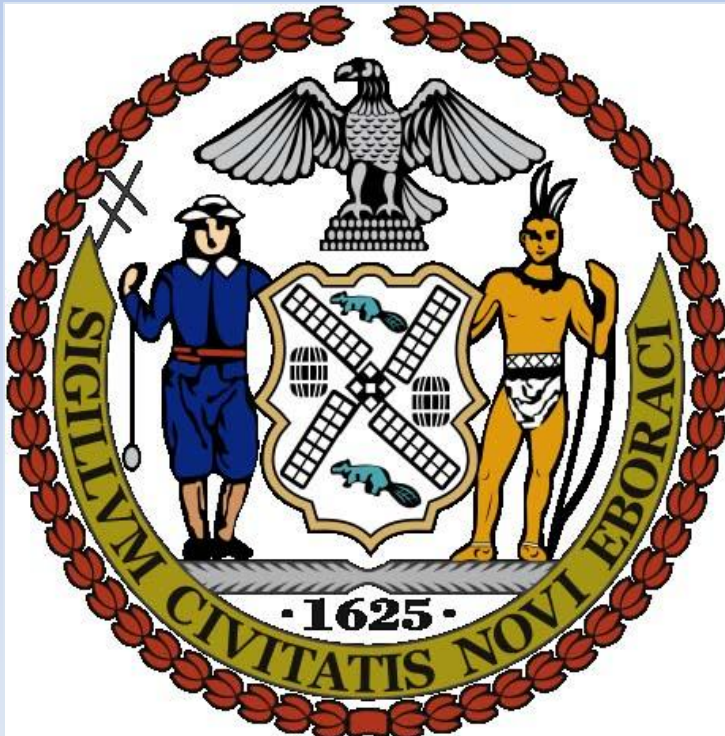

4. Bronx

5. Staten Island

The official Flag of the City of New York is designed to bear the same colors (orange, white, and blue) Located in the center is a blue print of the official Seal of New York City.

The Guggenheim Museum

It's one of the most famous museum in New York, which was opened in 1959 and was designed by a famous architect, Frank Lloyd Wright.

The Empire State Building

It's the tallest skyscraper in New York since 11 September 2001. Total height 443,2 meters to top of the lightning rod and weight 365,000 tons.

The Rockefeller Center

Another sight of New York is the Rockefeller Center was built by John D. Rockefeller It's a great office centre, where there is the largest and the most beautiful Christmas tree.

Christmas tree

The State of Liberty

It's one of the most famous symbols of America.

Broadway

Broadway is a famous street in New York

Central Park

The American Museum of Natural History

The American Museum of Natural History (abbreviated as AMNH), located in New York City and is one of the largest museums in the world. The Museum was founded in 1869

Skeleton Dinosaur

Skeleton Dinosaur

Model of a Blue Whale

