

FAMOUS PEOPLE

AND

THEIR FIRST JOBS

Madonna

The material girl worked at a New York Dunkin' Doghnuts as a teen.

Jennifer Anniston worked as a waitress, and even as a New York bike messenger before "Friends" took off.

Quentin Tarantino

The film nerd worked as a clerk in a video rental store before Hollywood.

Gerard Butler

went to law school, and joined a New York firm, before he became a leading man.

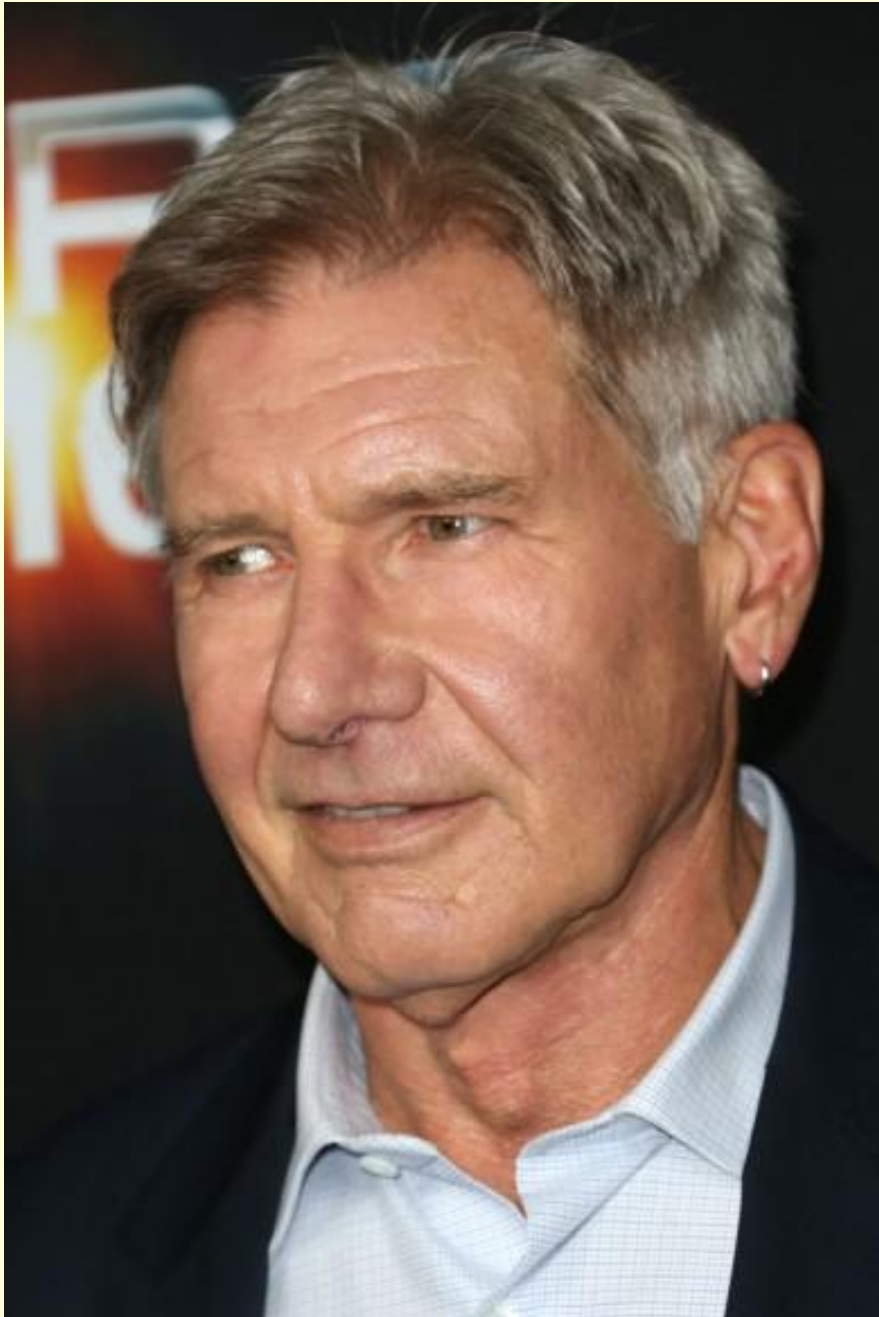

Morgan Freeman

As a teen growing up in Mississippi, he had a paper route.

Evangeline Lilly

has told interviewers that she worked a short time as an airline flight attendant, but quit because of the difficult schedules.

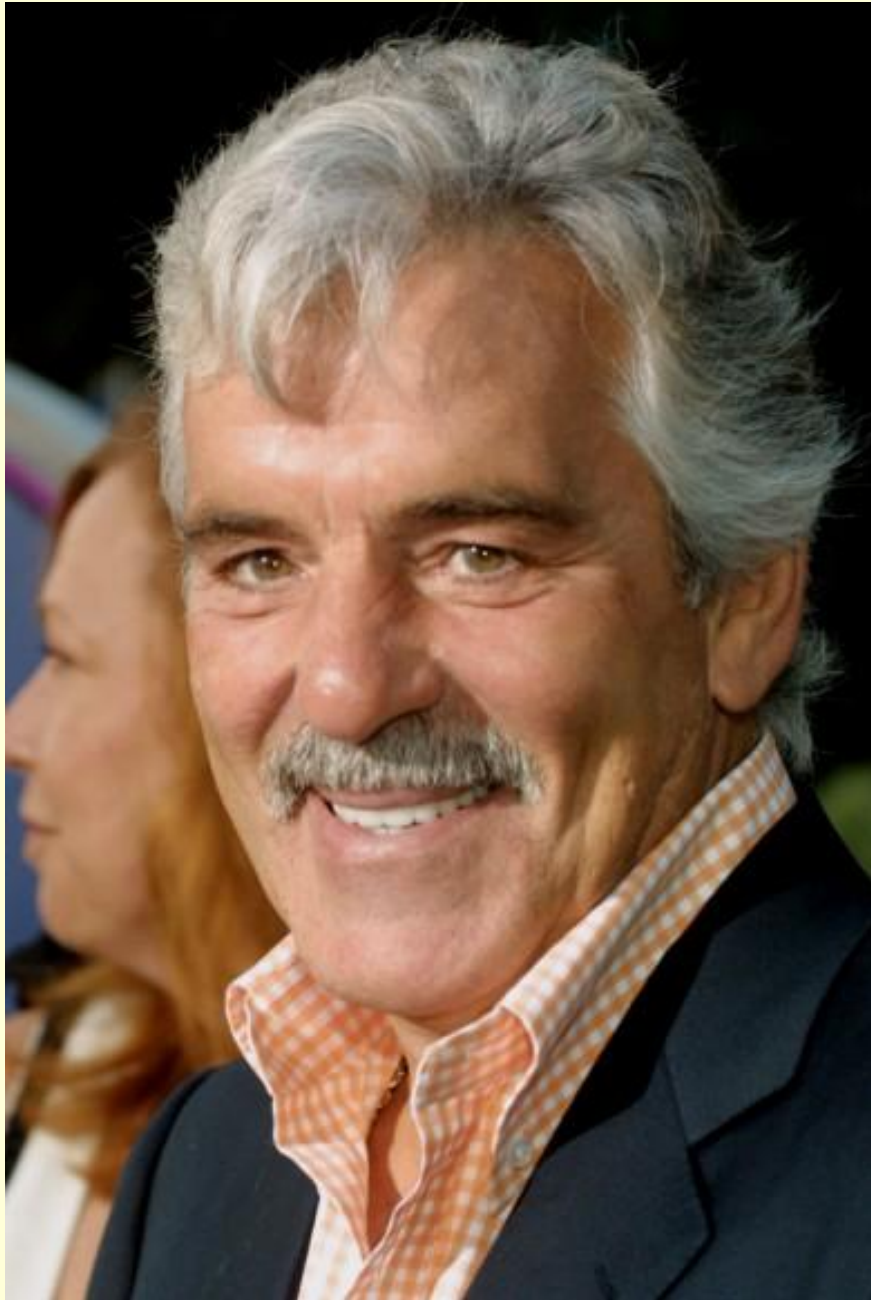

Harrison Ford

worked as a carpenter and woodworker to the stars in southern California before he was discovered.

Rene Russo

As a teen, the model/actress worked in an eyeglass factory.

Dennis Farina

worked as a Chicago police officer for almost 20 years before hanging up the badge and gun for acting.

Jerry Springer

Before he was the king of trash TV, Springer was mayor of Cincinnati.

Jim Carrey

The funny man with the rubber face worked as a factory janitor before his comedy and movie career took off.

Sandra Bullock

bartended and waitressed while she was beginning her acting career.

Mick Jagger

The Stones frontman sold ice cream as a teen.

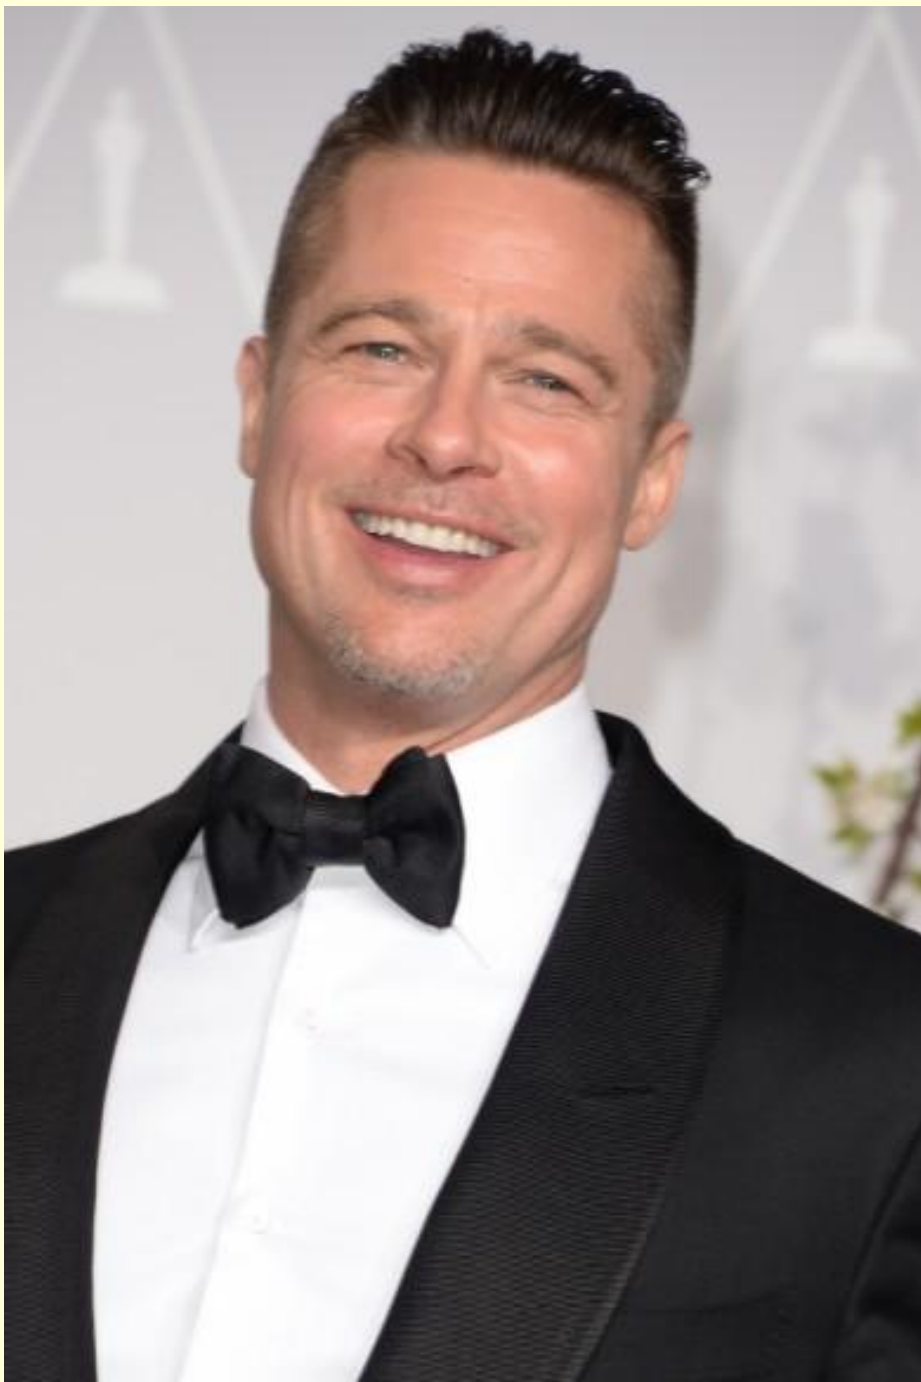

Jon Bon Jovi

was a janitor in a high school before he was living on a prayer.

Rachel McAdams

worked summers at McDonald's.

Brad Pitt

worked at a chicken fast food restaurant in Los Angeles, sometimes wearing the chicken mascot costume.

Julia Roberts

worked in an ice cream parlor.

Lady Gaga

worked as a NYC waitress.

Kanye West

worked at the Gap as a teen. He even referenced his former retail job in one of his songs.