

St. Patrick's Day

St. Patrick's Day

St. Patrick's Day is celebrated on the 17th of March in the world by the Irish and people of other nationalities. It is celebrated in Argentina, Australia, New Zealand, North America and Ireland.

St. Patrick's Day

March 17 is the day in honour of the life of St. Patrick.

St. Patrick's Day

Traditionally, in early morning Christians go to churches, then the holiday begins. Christians and non-Christians celebrate this day by wearing green clothes, decorating a green ribbons, shamrock , eating Irish food, different other green food, drinking Irish drinks (for example, widely known both beer Guinness, Irish whiskey), they have parades.

St. Patrick's Day

First parades have been in the United States in New York in 1876, and now parades are spread to other countries.

St. Patrick's Day

Saint Patrick is the patron of Ireland, known for his religious activities.

St. Patrick's Day

Church describes his life and deeds. He also documented his life, the birth of the Christian faith in the letters.

St. Patrick's Day

St. Patrick was born in Britain in the late 4th century, it was time to end the domination of the Roman Empire.

St. Patrick's Day

He began to study at a Christian priest, led the life of a monk. Then Saint Patrick had a vision, by an angel who told him to come to Ireland to bring religion.

St. Patrick's Day

Another thing that helped Saint Patrick introduced Christianity - the shamrock

St. Patrick's Day

St. Patrick used the shamrock to explain the Holy Trinity to the Irish people.

St. Patrick's Day

Shamrock became a symbol of St. Patrick's Day.

St. Patrick's Day

Today, St. Patrick's Day is celebrated in America, Canada and Ireland.

St. Patrick's Day

Many people wear green clothes.

St. Patrick's Day

St. Patrick's Day

St. Patrick's Day

