

Abraham Lincoln

Abraham Lincoln

- American politician and lawyer
- The 16 President of the United States (1861—1865)
- Lincoln led the United States through its Civil War
- liberator of American slaves

Family and childhood

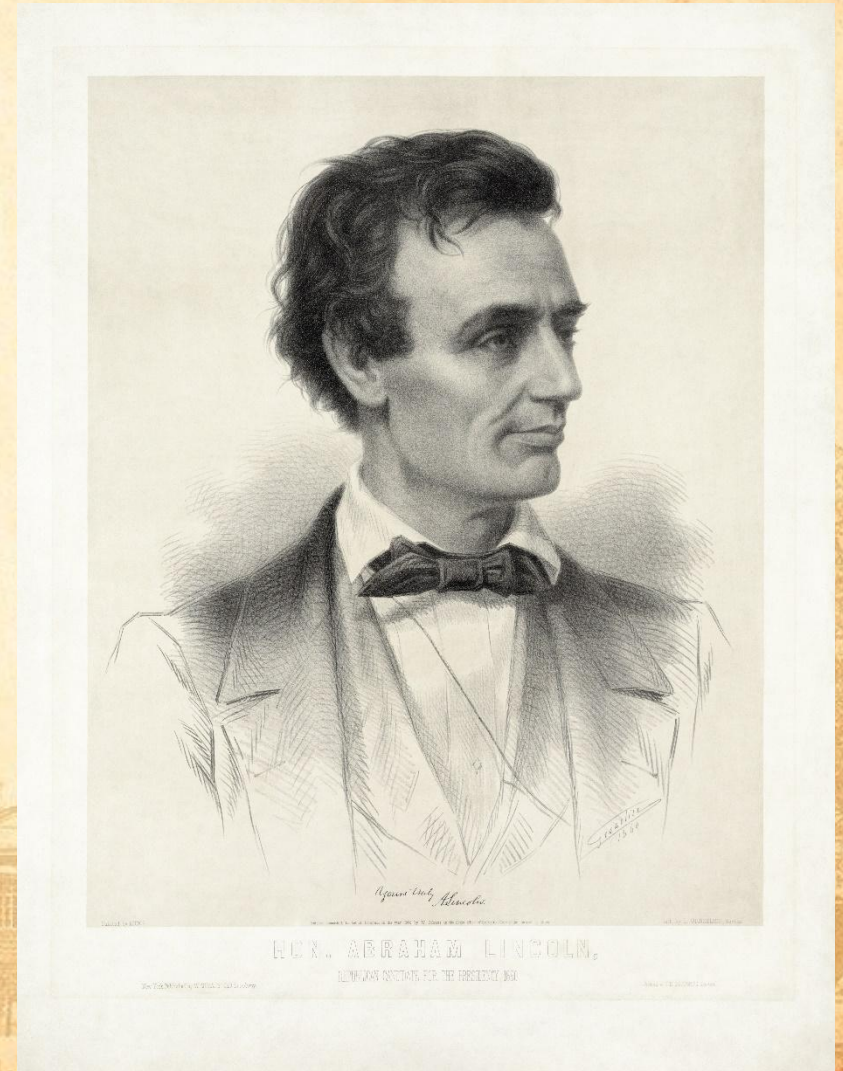

- He grew up in a poor farmer's family.
- Abraham became the first in the family who learned to write and read
- Lincoln loved books.

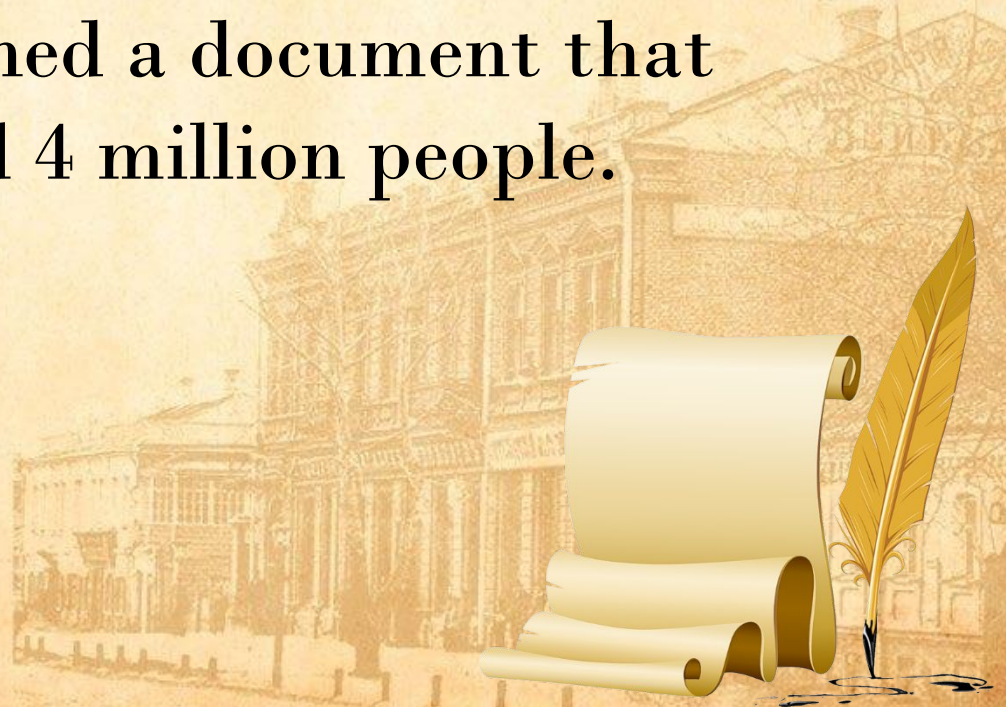

Work and education

- He succeeded and became one of the best lawyers of the state
- He had a sharp mind, integrity, honesty, the gift of eloquence
- He was elected to the Legislative Assembly

President

- In 1860 Lincoln was elected President of the United States.
- The country began a civil war.
- The President signed a document that emancipated freed 4 million people.

The Assassination Of Lincoln

Abraham Lincoln

