Canada's capital is Ottawa.

Ottawa is the seat of the Federal Parliament and government.

Canada is a constitutional monarchy. It is a member of the Commonwealth of Nations and Queen Elizabeth II is its official head of state. The Canadian Parliament consists of two chambers: the House of Commons and the Senate.

Although the Queen holds this position, she doesn't rule. Her representative in Canada is the Governor General, whom she appoints on the advice of the Canadian Prime Minister.

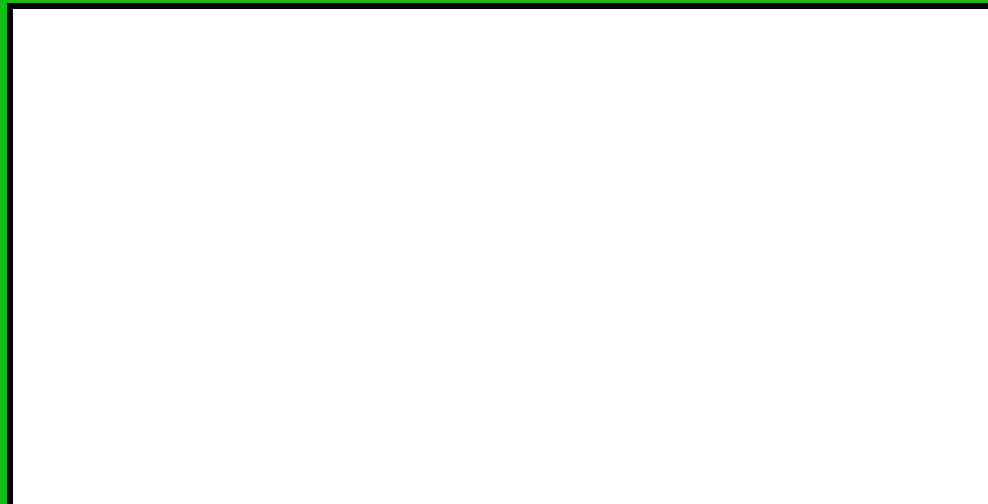

The real power belongs to the Prime Minister and his Cabinet.
