

Word formation

Spotlight-7

Презентацию выполнила
Учитель английского языка
МОУ Гимназии №16 «Интерес»
Аленчикова Светлана Андреевна

We can use ~~-able~~, ~~-ible~~, ~~-ent~~ to form adjectives from verbs.

~~able~~ Enjoy

Insist

Differ

Consider

Believe

Sense

Fill the sentences: believable considerable different enjoyable insistent sensible

1. Mrs Lockhart said that the river cruise had been

2. Jack is very .He never enters the fray.

3. She was , inviting me to a party.

4. We use suffixes to create words.

5. Apprehended said alibi.

6. Money donated by celebrities accounted for a part of the fund to assist patients

We use un-, in-, il-, in-, ir- to form opposite adjectives.

logical

in

un

responsible believable

im

un

possible

active

un

il

balanced

forgettable

ir

Noun + -ful = quality a person/thing has.
helpful advice

Noun + -less = quality a person/thing doesn't have.
useless speech

Successful Success

Careful Care Careless

Thoughtful Thought Thoughtless

Speech Speechless

Beautiful Beauty

Fill the gaps in words: ful less

1. If you have your own business - you are success ful
2. Tony is a careful with his work. He rarely makes a mistakes.
3. My sister is very careless . She is always breaking things.
4. It was thoughtless of you to ask Sue about her exam, because she failed it.
5. It was thought ful of you to ask him how he was feeling.
6. John was speechless when he hard the news.
7. Sofia is the most beautiful person I know.

We can use -en at the end of some adjectives to form verbs.

dark - darken

Blacken

Shorten

Widen

Reden

Find the suffix:

1. The sky blackened as the dark clouds blocked out the sun.
2. His face reddened in anger.
3. This road is too narrow. They should widen it!
4. Can you shorten my dress, please?

We use -ive, -ative to form adjectives from some verbs.

Impress	→	Impress ive
Inform	→	Inform ative
Protect	→	Protect ive
Create	→	Creat ive
Attract	→	Attract ive
Imagine	→	Imagin ative

Complete the sentences: informative creative imaginative attractive impressive protective

1. From the outside, the results look very
2. The student's book was very
3. Despite the helmet, his upper jaw and nose were broken.
4. Intellectual aspects are infused with energy and crowned with success.
5. She was quite an woman with her pretty auburn hair.
6. So I have a particular approach to visual work.

Thank you for your attention

