

Almaty

Almaty is the largest city of Kazakhstan, located in the southeast of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The city of Almaty was the capital of Kazakhstan from 1929 to 1998. Almaty was given the status of a city of republican importance and the southern capital of the republic, the largest financial, scientific and cultural center.

The city of Almaty has always been considered a garden city, surrounded by magnificent Tien-Shan firs.

Picturesque mountains are the visiting card of Almaty. You can enjoy their views by climbing the cable car to the highest point of the city of Kok-Tobe ("blue mountain"), located at an altitude of 1,130 meters above sea level.

Two large rivers - Big and Small Almaty flows off the mountains and provide the city with fresh water, fill the reservoirs and fountains with coolness and freshness.

the ski base Chimbulak - another pearl of Almaty, which is located at an altitude of 2.230 meters. There is a 1500 meter high suspension road that will raise you to a height of 3163 meters to the peak of Talgar.

Park of 28 Panfilov heroes is located in the heart of the city. The park is famous for the Memorial of Glory, which includes a monument, the eternal fire, the square and the Memory Alley, where 28 granite monuments with the names of 28 Panfilov heroes who died in the Battle of Moscow during the Second World War were erected.

„ВЕЛИКАЯ РОССИЯ. А ОТСТУПАТЬ НЕКУДА,
ПОЗАДИ МОСКВА!“

ПОЭМА В. КАВЧУКОВ