

A house-painter

Name: Salikova Alina
Ravilevna
School: 99
Form: 9 K

All professions are important!

choose any!

Why a painter?

History of a trade

Sumerians, Egyptians,
Chineses,
Greece and others inherited painting craft

A house-painter ...

- is an artist too
- uses buildings, cars and other objects
- not everyone who has taken in hands a brush and a bucket of a paint, will manage to recolor a surface as a real professional

The social importance of the trade:

- ✓ an aesthetic view of buildings, their decoration
- ✓ protection from corrosion and destruction

Mass character and uniqueness of a trade:

internationality

high-demand simplicity for learning

A house-painter knows:

- ❖ painting walls;
- ❖ wallpapering
- ❖ puttying
- ❖ art finishing of walls and ceiling
- ❖ mixture of paints
- ❖ decorative lackering and golding etc.

Tools of a house-painter:

Risks of the trade:

- ❑ allergic diseases
- ❑ working at height

Where to receive a trade:

- Kazan college of communal services and bulding

My true dream!

The background of the slide is white with decorative borders at the top and bottom. These borders consist of numerous overlapping circles and bubbles in various colors, including shades of orange, yellow, purple, pink, and blue. The circles vary in size and opacity, creating a soft, bubbly effect.

Thank you for your attention!!!