Venice of the North

Russia is a huge country and there are many beautiful and interesting places to visit.

Saint Petersburg has got many things to see and do for the whole family.

The city's Central park of Leisure and Culture is famous for its attractions and it is a great place to go to have fun.

You can visit the Elaginoostrovsky
Palace of wax figures or go on exciting rides at the fun park

In the summer you can hire boats and explore the park or even take a steamship ride on the river.

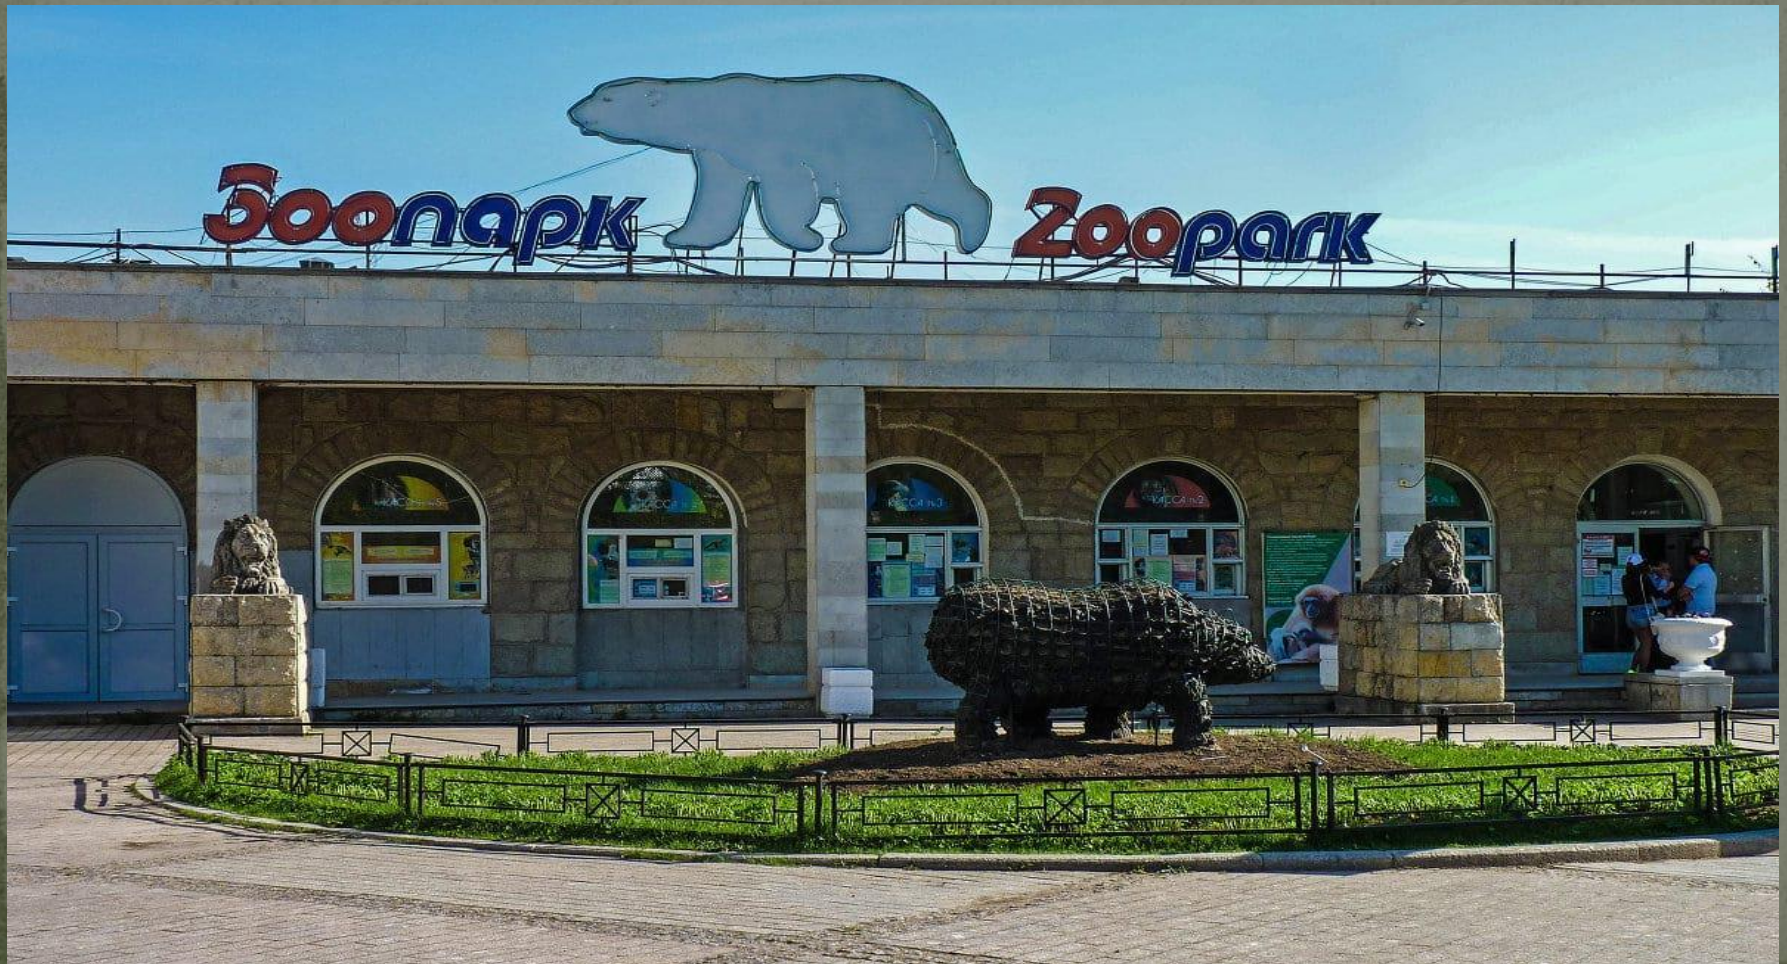

In the winter, many people go ice-skating at the park's ski-centre or sleigh down a steep snowy hill for fun

Saint Petersburg has something for everyone.

Leningradsky Zoo with its 400 different types of animals from all over the world.

You can also visit the wonderful Durov Animal Theatre and see all sorts of animals perform.

must. Watch dolphins do clever tricks and even sing or dance for cheering crowds and have a laugh with the funny sea lions.

If you have time you should also check out the famous Puppet Theatre of Fairy Tales where you can see old and modern plays.
